Japs' Rabaul Base At New Britain Is Raided

(BULLETIN)

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS, In Australia, May 15.—A Japanese transport was damaged and seven Japanese planes shot down when United Nations fliers raided the enemy base at Rabaul, New Britain, it was announced today.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur said in a communique that the seven planes destroyed were from a group of 17 Japanese fighters which attempted to intercept the American and Australian fliers. All the United Nations craft returned safely to their base after attacking enemy shipping in Rabaul Harbor.

A Jap seaplane was sunk and ground installations set afire when the United Nations pilots raided the De Boyne Island base in the Louisiade Archipelago.

CHUNGKING, May 15.—Japanese forces thrusting northwest from the Burma road increased their pressure today on the beleaguered city of Tengchung, as Chungking military observers speculated on the reason for Nippon's apparent "detour" in an invasion of Yunnan Province believed to be aimed at Kunming.

It was generally conceded that the Japanese detachments had branched off the Burma road in order to strike at Yhugchang simultaneously from several directions. The Japs already have taken Tachai, directly north of Tenkehung, and capture of the latter city would enable them to send strong attacking forces against Yungching from the north and west, while other units were advancing against that stronghold up the Burma road from the southwest.

Yungchung, 225 miles west of Kunming, is regarded as a logical "stepping stone" to the Yunnan capital, which has served as an important air base for Chinese and American volunteer group fliers.

Fighting Fiercely

Although the Chinese were reported to be fighting fiercely in the Tengchung area early today, observers expected the major Chinese resistance to be concentratd in Yungchang. Chinse forces have de-

U. S. Presses Further Martinique Proposals

By KINGSBURY SMITH

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—With dismantling of the French warships in Martinique underway, the United States government today is understood to be pressing for acceptance of the other American proposals concerning the future status of the French Caribbean possessions.

These proposals include the requisitioning of seven French tankers now lying idle in French Caribbean waters, Pan-American control of communications between the French possessions and the outside world, and other measures to help safeguard the security of the Caribbean and prevent any pro-Axis activities in Martinique, Gauleloupe and French Guiana.

Negotiations On

Negotiations are being carried out with Admiral Georges Robert, the French high commissioner of Martinique, by Admiral John H. Hoover, commander of the American naval forces in the Caribbean.

Subs Assassins Declares Hull

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretary of State Cordell Hull today branded as assassins the Axis submarine forces which are waging unrestricted warfare against shipping in western hemispheric waters.

Commenting on the reported torpedoing and sinking of a Mexican tanker which was proceeding off the east coast of the United States with lights on, Hull said this was another instance of those outrageous and infamous acts of lawlessness what evidently represent one of the underlying policies of the lawless governments that are waging the world movement of conquest.

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, May 15.—German reserves rushed to the Kharkov front in an attempt to stem the furious drive by inspired Russian armies against the key city in the Ukraine were reported reeling back in fetreat today.

The Germans were said to have thrown in numerous reserves without giving them any rest at the end of long marches to the front in an unsuccessful effort to stem the steam-roller advance of Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's armies.

New Red Attack

EDITOR'S NOTE: Axis reports stated that a new attack had been started by the Russians against Pokrovsk, deep in the Donets basin 15 miles north of the Port of Taganrog. An effective assault in this sector would prevent possible German attempts to skirt the northern shore of the Sea of Azov for a drive against Rostov and on into the oil-rich Caucasus.

The newspaper Izvestia, official government organ, said the offensive was growing in intensity and that the road of the German retreat was littered with corpses and guns, tanks and other equipment either destroyed or abandoned.

Drive Forward

Supported by mighty squadrons of Stormovik bombers, the Soviet tank artillery and infantry forces drove steadily forward against Kharkov, important industrial city in the Donets basin.

The Red army newspaper Red Star declared that the Russians had

Ballots Going Out To Polls

Preparations For Balloting On Tuesday In City And County Completed

Lawrence County voters go to the polls Tuesday, May 19, to cast their ballots in an election which has been distinguished by its lack of interest.

In the office of the elections bureau, Chief Clerk Will A. Eakin has ballots, poll books and tally sheets ready to go out to the polls, political leaders are preparing for the usual week end surge and the average voter is just waiting for Tuesday.

Many election boards have seen resignations of board members due to working conditions. Apparently the board members are loathe to forego a dollar an hour in industry to work 16 or 18 hours on an election board for half that.

Must Report Count At Once

It was pointed out today that perhaps many of the new board members might not be acquainted with the fact that election totals are to be taken to the court house immediately after they are completed in the precinct voting places.

This primary's ballot is not long and the probabilities are the vote will be light. If this is true the counting of the ballots should take comparatively little time on Tuesday night.

County Men Are Given Farewell

Celebration Takes Place At Station As Selected Men Leave For Camp

With a large number of people present to bid them honor, a farewell celebration took place at the Pennsylvania station as the Selected men from County Board No. 2 left for the Erie Examining Station this morning to take their final examination before induction into the service.

The Senior high school band, directed by Joe F. Replogle was on hand and played appropriate selections prior to the departure.

The Service Men's Aid Association of which Capt. Carl Andreassen is president was represented by men from each organization comprising the Association, and in behalf of the organization, each man was presented with a shoe shining kit. Talks were given by U. S. Marine Recruiting Sergeant John Dean, and Capt. Andreasen.

The group which left today went to Erie instead of Pittsburgh as heretofore, and those who pass their final physical examination will go direct to camp. The others will return home this evening.

Groups from Local Boards One and Two of this city will leave a little later, and a similar celebration has been arranged in their honor.

Germans Claim U. S. Cruiser And Destroyer Sunk

(International News Service)

LONDON, May 15 — Reuters today reported a broadcast of a special announcement from Berlin in which it was claimed that German aircraft sank an American cruiser and a destroyer in the north Atlantic.

In addition, it was asserted, an ice breaker and a merchant vessel were destroyed and a freighter of 10,000 tons set afire.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: There was absolutely no confirmation of the German claims.)

"In attacks on an American squadron yesterday," the announcement said, "the Luftwaffe sank a cruiser of the Pensacola class and a destroyer between the North Cape and Spitzbergen.

"Further, an ice breaker of 3,000 tons and a merchant vessel of 2,000 tons were destroyed.

"A 10,000-ton freighter was so heavily hit it was set afire from stem to stern."

Filing Fee Is Now Considered

Every Person Filing Income Tax Report Would Have To Pay Fee

WOULD COUNT ON TAX PAYMENT

By ARTHUR F. HERMANN

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The house ways and means committee, it was learned today has requested the treasury to supply tables of revenue estimates, indicating that personal tax rates will be somewhat lower than those proposed by Secretary Morgenthau.

The treasury secretary has suggested that individuals pay normal taxes of four per cent and surtaxes ranging from 12 to 86 per cent, increasing with each $500 of taxable income.

These new estimates of revenue are required because of the committee's approval of reduced personal exemptions. Rep. Doughton (D) N. C., chairman of the tax-writing group, explained that lower exemptions have made existing revenue estimates "meaningless".

Meanwhile, the committee's effort to write a war time tax measure were further complicated by Morgenthau's suggestion that a "head tax" should be levied on each person who files a return, whether or not he pays a tax.

Nominal Amount

Morgenthau explained that such a levy would be of a nominal amount, with perhaps $5 as the minimun, and would partially de-

Too Much Talk In Washington

President Charges Much Loose Talk In Capital Of Value To Enemy

MORE THAN ALL OF REMAINDER OF U. S.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—President Roosevelt charged today that more loose talk of possible value to the enemy is indulged in in Washington, D. C., than all the rest of the country combined.

Commenting on his recent "lecture" to members of the Pacific war council about the dangers of such loose talk, the President said he was not aiming his remarks at Australia. Rather, they were meant for every continent, for India, for Egypt, for South America and for the Far East.

Much Needed

The President said his lecture on unguarded talk about war activities had been much needed. At his press conference today, however, he particularly paid his respects to loose talkers here in this nation's capital.

Although the country in general is pretty tight-mouthed, Mr. Roosevelt said such was not the situation in Washington.

Asked whether his observations were aimed at Congress among others, the President replied that Congress was in the District of Columbia.

Only in Shangri-Law, the mythical point the President has been using facetiously in evading questions on the war, did he find perfectly marvelous cooperation in the matter of keeping one's mouth shut, he said.

Bessemer Boy With Marines At Bataan, Missing

Anthony Hulina, Of Bessemer, Receives Message From War Department

Corp. Milton F. Hulina, who was stationed in the Manila area with the U. S. Marines, has been listed by the war department as missing, pending more definite information.

His father, Anthony Hulina, of Bessemer, has just received this word from the war department.

Corporal Hulina was serving his second enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps, having enlisted in July, 1934, and re-enlisted for his second hitch in November 1939.

No report on his death has been received and it is believed that he may be a prisoner of war. He will be carried on the records as missing until more definite information is received, the message states.

Believe Japanese Moving Some Philippine Troops

By JOSEPH A. BORS

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—With the Philippine conflict over except for relatively minor skirmishes, veteran units of Japan's gigantic army which took Bataan and Corregidor today are believed to be enroute to more lively war theaters—prooably China and the Australian area.

Immobilized for nearly five months in the Philippines by a small but valiant American-Filipino army, the majority of the commonwealth invasion force, estimated at more than 250,000 troops, now are free to support the Jap spearheads in other areas.

Military experts assert that some Nipponese units were transferred from the Manila area to Burma shortly after the fall of Bataan April 9 and play a vital role in the enemy thrust toward the borders of India and China.

With the fall of Corregidor, military men contend that other hardened units were ordered deployed to more active fronts, either in China or Japanese-held invasion bases on the islands north of Australia.

May Be In Australian Area

Veteran bomber pilots and crews which spent months attempting to knock out Corregidor's defenses already are believed to be in action in the Australian area, where Gen.

Little Gasoline In New York

Gas Stations Short On Supply —Rationing Cards Make Little Difference Today

By WALTER KIERNAN

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, May 15.—More important today than the large number of "X" and "B" gas rationing cards issued to New York motorists was the fact that there was little gas for anybody in this city of thousands of gas stations.

The meager supply available was being rationed not in accordance with the government's pretty cards, but by the dealers themselves.

East side, west side, all around the town, the gas pumps bore the sign "Sorry—No Gas".

And at the few stations which had gas, it made no difference whether the customer produced the modest "A" card for three gallons or flashed the mystic "X" which is supposed to bring quantity without limit—he got whatever the dealer was disposed to give out under his own theory of equitable distribution.

Meanwhile thousands who rushed for the "X" and "B" cards in the initial rationing were rushing right back again—under threat of severe penalty for fakers—to say that they had "been confused" or "misunderstood" and could do with an "A" card just as well.

And also meanwhile there were hints of "black markets" already set to function with gas at a stiff price

Seven Injured In Accident On Perry Highway

(International News Service)

GREENVILLE, Pa., May 15.—Seven Youngstown, O., laborers employed on the construction project of the Keystone Ordnance plant at Geneva, were in the Greenville hospital today recovering from injuries received late yesterday when a truck in which they were riding crashed into an automobile on the Perry highway, 11 miles north of Mercer.

Four other men in the truck at the time were treated at the hospital for superficial cuts and bruises and then dismissed.

Tilio Desilio, 42, one of the injured, was suffering from a skull fracture and was in a serious condition.

Scrap Metal Collection Is Near Record

Lawrence County Makes Notable Record In Campaign Now Closing

If Lawrence county hasn't set a national record in the scrap collection campaign held here, it will do until a better one comes along. Ross D. Rosenberger, general chairman of the campaign, made public a report of the totals today and while the totals will be heavier when the drive is finally completed, Lawrence county's total and per capita are today beyond anything the state headquarters has received.

In the door to door collection a total of 1035.96 tons of metal scrap was collected. Pittsburgh collected only 1000 tons. The per capital average of collection in Lawrence county stands at 21.61 pounds per person, as against Pittsburgh's 3 pounds per capital, with Cleveland and Youngstown slightly better than Pittsburgh.

New Castle Total

In New Castle the total scrap collected stands at 587.21 tons, a remarkable record. The rural townships totalled 342.39 tons and the boros 106.23 tons. The boro per capita is 13.12 pounds with Volant getting 16.8 pounds per capita and Enon Valley 15.5 per capital.

When the campaign started it was said that 500 pounds of scrap per farm would be a good average. North Beaver township has already a per farm average of 560.64 pounds and Hickory township 644.09 pounds per farm.

The campaign here shows what can be done when one is properly organized. Scrap is continuing to come into the yards and it is possible that a cleanup period may be put on to boost the total to a point where every other city in the United States will have something to shoot at.

With the collection still incomplete, New Castle and Lawrence county have the state headquarters in Harrisburg cheering. It was another example of the Lawrence county way of doing things.

Gas Rationing Goes Into Effect

Program Became Effective In Seventeen Eastern States Last Midnight

MAY BE EXTENDED TO OTHER STATES

By PHILLIPS J. PECK

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The 50 per cent slash in filling station deliveries today was expected to serve as the government's "ace in the hole" in carrying out it's gasoline rationing program for 8,500,000 motorists from Maine to Florida.

After three hectic days of registration, marked by bitter debate in Congress, threats of prosecution of gasoline "chiselers" and confusion in official circles, the rationing and delivery curtailment program went into effect at one second after midnight last night.

May Be Extended

Serving as a background to the East Coast situation was the speculation in the capital on whether gasoline rationing would be extended to the entire nation within a short time as a rubber conservation measure. Price administration officials already have announced that gasoline will be rationed in Washington and Oregon June 1.

The reduction of filling station supplies to only 50 per cent of normal appeared to be Price Chief Leon Hender's "trump card" in making rationing "stick."

Despite the preponderance of highly rated "B" and "X" cards in the hands of millions of motorists in the 17 Atlantic states and the District of Columbia, the men behind the pump have only half as much gasoline to meet customers demands.

Gas 'Chiseling' To Be Exposed

By PHILLIPS J. PECK

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Indicating that "chiseling" on gasoline rationing may be exposed, President Roosevelt today declared that the names of those holding ration cards should be a matter of public record.

Asked if he did not believe that holders of "X" cards should be required to carry a sticker on the windshield of their cars identifying them as privileged to get unlimited amounts of gasoline, Mr. Roosevelt replied that that would be something to be worked out by administrative authorities. His questioner at a press conference had prefaced the interrogation with the observation that this would help expose the use of "X" cards for pleasure jaunts to race tracks and other places of amusement.

Domestic Airlines Under U.S. Control

Will Develop War Program

Routes Not Regarded As Essential To War Effort To Be Terminated

MANY PLANES TAKEN FOR ARMY SERVICE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The war department today prepared to carry out a sweeping program for utilization of the nation's commercial air fleet as the domestic airlines were placed under army control.

Acting on instructions from President Roosevelt, the department said that the airlines will be placed on a wartime footing and all routes and services not regarded as essential to the war program will be terminated.

Steps Planned

The following steps will be taken in carrying out the move:

1. A substantial proportion of the available flight equipment will be transferred outright to the army air forces to be available for operation by army personnel in the various services and commands.

2. The airlines themselves will convert approximately 70 ships into cargo carriers, to be operated by airline personnel under contract for the air service command. Title to most of the ships will remain with the companies.

Some Commercial Service

3. The remaining planes—aggregating about half of those now in commercial service—will until further notice continue in commercial service, but "always available for emergency military missions."

The department said that new schedules for operation of the airlines are being prepared by the civilian aeronautics board and will be announced shortly.

Travel by air will be subject to a strict system of priorities and greatly restricted. The department said that "all persons who can travel by train are to do so, except in real emergencies."

"While air mail will be flown for the present over the new routes to be operated by the airlines, it may become necessary to curtail this service still more at a later date," the department said.

stroyed all bridges across the Salween river leading to Yungchang and were reported to be holding the eastern bank of that stream at all points after halting the Jap advance.

A Japanese force of 30,000 men was attempting to advance northward below Chekiang, aided by 30 planes operating from an aircraft carrier which appeared yesterday in Hangchow Bay.

Observers believed this force coupled with reinforcements from Thailand and French Indo-China, might constitute a greater threat to Kunming than the detachments driving along the Burma road.

The whole Japanese plan in Yunnan Province probably is aimed at the destruction of existing and potential air bases from which United Nations bombers could operate effectively against Nippon, observers agreed.

In the confused central Burma fighting, Chinese forces were reported to be holding their positions near Jap-held Mandalay and Myitkyina and possibly contemplating a counter-attack on Jap columns based at Lashio.

To the west, withdrawing British forces were still contacting the enemy in the vicinity of Kalewa, reports indicated.

including an aircraft carrier and three light cruisers, and is continuing to discuss the other American proposals, has encouraged the hope in Washington official circles that it may be possible to reach a satisfactory agreement.

France's action in authorizing Admiral Robert to agree to the immobilization of his warships also has led to the belief that Pierre Laval, pro-collaborationist head of the French government, is extremely eager to avoid a break in relations with the United States.

May Occupy Possessions

There is reason to believe that this government would like to have American or Pan-American forces occupy the French possessions if such a move could be accomplished without bloodshed.

It is felt that the presence of American or Pan-American forces in the French possessions would relieve all anxiety concerning the possible danger of pro-Axis elements in those possessions engaging in any activities that might menace the security of this hemisphere.

However, there are indications that some of the Latin American republics feel immobilization of the French warships in the Caribbean, coupled with acceptance of the other American proposals, will serve practically the same purpose as occupation of the French possessions.

The United States has been keeping the friendly governments in Latin America informed of developments concerning Martinique, and the state department would be reluctant to take any step that did not meet with their approval.

If Admiral Robert agrees to accept the other American proposals now under discussion, occupation of the French possessions may be avoided.

BELIEVE JAPS ARE MOVING SOME PHILIPPINES TROOPS

Douglas MacArthur's aerial units have been taking a heavy toll of Nipponese planes.

Obviously Japan will need only a few reconnaissance planes in the Philippines and only a skeleton force of the veteran army that crushed the defenses of Bataan and Corregidor. For policing work, it is believed that less seasoned Nipponese soldiers will be brought from Japan.

Most of the divisions which made up the Philippine invasion force originally saw action in China, and some of them are believed to be enroute back on the continent. Others probably are being transported to Jap invasion bases on New Guinea and New Britain islands.

May Be Shock Forces

These seasoned troops also may play a vital part as special shock forces in the event Japan launches its long-anticipated thrust to knock out or capture vital Russian bases in Siberia.

For these reasons, military experts assert that the valiant, although losing, fight put up for nearly five months by American-Filipino forces in the Manila area played an important role in building up the defensees of Australia and India.

These men contend that if Bataan and Corregidor had fallen as quickly as Hong Kong and Singapore, Japan might have captured vital islands around Australia long before American and the United Nations could move reinforcements to the southwest Pacific.

With MacArthur's aerial forces gathering strength daily, it is possible that United States units which were forced first out of the Philippines and then out of the Dutch East Indies now may get a chance to strike back at the same enemy troops that invaded Luzon.

that success of the rationing program depends upon "the honesty, integrity, common sense and patriotism" of the thousands of eastern filling station operators.

In their hands rests the responsibility of doling out the 400,000,000 gallons of gasoline available to East Coast passenger cars between now and July 1, when a more comprehensive plan will be placed into effect.

Regular customers come first with many operators. Several trucks—although entitled to unlimited gasoline—were stalled in Washington because the truck terminal had to go carefully with its curtailed supplies, and could not give them enough gasoline to reach their destination in New York. On the eve of rationing innumerable filling stations displayed the "sold out" signs.

Meantime, harassed O.P.A. officials still discussed the possibility of slashing the basic three-gallon unit as another step to make the demand conform to the supply. A decision is not expected for several days, pending complete "returns" on the three-day registration.

O.P.A. enforcement representatives debated the advisability of a wholesale checkup to see whether regulations have been flouted and excessive numbers of "B" and "X" cards have been issued to ineligible motorists.

Officials in Boston, New York and other centers threatened to prosecute registrants who falsified their applications. A penalty of $10,000 fine and imprisonment for 10 years is possible upon conviction.

Pupils of the New Castle public schools presented a notable music program at the Cathedral last night. With six or seven hundred taking part in the choruses, there was evidence of excellent work being done in music instruction in the city's schools.

CASTLEWOOD

CLASS MEETING

The Truth Seekers class of the Harmony Baptist church held their May meeting on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Reno.

After the devotionals and business meeting the evening was spent in packing boxes for the Castlewood boys in service.

Later a lunch was served by Mrs. Reno and aides.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joe Cowan.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM

On last Sunday morning the primary department of the Harmony Baptist Sunday school presented a program of songs and recitations after which flowers were presented to Mrs. William Glasser, the oldest mother present, and to Mrs. Betty Cole, the youngest mother present, and a flower was sent to Mrs. Travis, the oldest mother of the church.

Corsages were presented to Mrs. Joe Cowan, whose husband is in the service, and to Mrs. Edna White, who as a son in the service.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Mrs. Harry James entertained a group of boys and girls at her home on Monday evening in honor of the birthday of her son Harold. The group enjoyed a merry time playing games on the lawn.

Later they were served tempting refreshments by Mrs. James and aides.

The honor guest was the recipient of many useful gifts.

CASTLEWOOD NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrow and children visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Knight and family of Highland Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bintrim and Florence White motored to Leetonia, O., Wednesday evening. Florence remained for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hively.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hogue and daughters and Mrs. Mary Hogue and son Lawrence and daughter Ellen Louise, all of Enon Valley, visited Sunday evening with Edna White and family.

FILING FEE IS NOW CONSIDERED

fray costs of handling the millions of additional tax returns expected next March.

Sen. George (D. Ga., chairman of the senate finance committee, who suggested the idea to Morgenthau, said:

"I believe that we could raise a good deal more money by this tax. I suggested a low fee to be paid when an income tax return is filed, say $3 to $5, with the money being applied as a credit on the tax if there is tax due, but if a return is filed and there is no tax liability, the fee would be retained by the government to meet the cost of handling the return."

If exemptions are lowered, it may be that 20,000,000 people will file tax returns but have no tax liability, under the George plan, perhaps $60,000,000 to $100,000,000 could be raised.

Delay Further Action

Holding further action on personal taxes in abeyance pending receipt of the new revenue estimates, the ways and means committee has turned its attention to the question of removing tax exemption features from state, county and municipal bonds.

Incomes from these securities at present are exempt from federal taxation, but the treasury has suggested that the tax "loopholes" be closed in order to produce upwards of $1,000,000,000 annually.

Sentiment within the committee is reported to lean toward retention of the tax exempt features on bonds already in the hands of the public. Some committee members have contended that the interest rates and sales prices of the bonds were based on the fact that such securities were not liable to federal taxation.

There was a possibility, however, that the committee would vote to remove the tax exemption feature from future issues of such securities, in accordance with treasury recommendations.

Commercially speaking, any small fish of the herring family is a sardine. The true sardine is also called the pilchard.

Preachers use the wrong psychology. Instead of saying salvation is free, they should hint at a coming shortage.

Japan Building Five Battleships

Italian Fleet Dwindling Says Authoritative Record Just Issued

(International News Service)

LONDON, May 15.—Disclosure that Japan is rushing completion of five new battleships exceeding 40,000 tons each while the Italian fleet is dwindling as a major factor in the war was made today in the 1941 issue of the authoritative Jane's Fighting Ships, just off the press.

Available figures show, the book said, that capital ship construction throughout the world now is at the greatest peak in history. All six of the 35,000-ton Washington class battleships of the United States Navy have been launched, Jane's said, with two already in service.

Lack of materials may slow up Japanese ship construction, Jane's pointed out, but among the vessels on the ways are several new types.

Half of Italy's cruiser fleet is gone, the book revealed, and a shortage of steel has prevented Premier Mussolini from making any sizeable replacements. The volume noted a "certain shrinkage" in the Germany navy and revealed that Adolf Hitler's various conquests have resulted in only minor acquisitions of fighting ships from occupied countries.

"Gangway for the shower"—that's me when I get home from the office at night! What a pleasure to step into the shower with a big cake of BATH SIZE CAMAY—to feel its rich, creamy lather all over me, from head to foot. It's simply wonderful after a hard day! I can just feel taut nerves "letting go"—as Camay washes away the dirt and dust of the day!

Hurrah! No more complexion-size cakes of soap as elusive as a minnow and as slippery as an eel! Bath Size Camay is a great big husky handful—a real man-size cake of soap. And what lather—mountains of it, in any water!

All for Camay—Camay for all! That's the way the whole family feels! So big Bath Size Camay does double duty as the wife's beauty soap and our bath soap, too! We all go for its mildness—yes, and for its refreshing fragrance!

No more falling to sleep after dinner for me—not when a brisk shower with Bath Size Camay will put me back in the "pink" again. Gosh, I feel swell—all rested and relaxed. Great stuff—Bath Size Camay—why don't you try it?

Bath Size Camay

LUXURIOUS, ECONOMICAL, TOO!

CAMAY NOW IN TWO SIZES—BATH SIZE AND REGULAR SIZE!

FRANCE IN NEW WORLD

IN ITS effort to make certain that the Axis shall get no foothold in French possessions in the New World, Washington is ignoring Quisling Laval of the Vichy regime and conducting negotiations directly with the local authorities. For purposes of negotiation Washington singles out Georges Robert, high commissioner of French Caribbean possessions, as capable of entering into a binding agreement.

Although details of the negotiations are not disclosed, the price the United States is prepared to pay is guaranty of the integrity of the French possessions, the preservation of French property for the postwar use of the French people, and in the interim aid to the economic life of these possessions, which also include Guadelope in the Caribbean and French Guiana on the north coast of South America.

What United States action might be if Admiral Robert failed to rise to the emergency and act upon his own, with or without the private assent of Laval, is still left to public surmise. In this connection the full approval by Washington of British action in Madagascar takes on added significance.

Laval, though subjected to severe German pressure, is nevertheless believed to be anxious to avoid a break with the United States. Such a break might mark the beginning of the complete disintegration of the French overseas empire, at least for the war's duration. One of the imponderables in this situation is the direction of the sympathies of French colonial troops, indignant at the sufferings of friends and relatives back home and with no relish for fighting battles for their German conquerors. One factor counted upon heavily is the fact that Admiral Robert has evinced friendliness to the United States. Another is the proximity of Uncle Sam's Caribbean fleet.

Already the United States has an agreement with Vichy for the neutrality of these French possessions, in which Admiral Robert was a participant. That was entered into when Petain was the head Nazi collaborationist at Vichy. The accession of Laval, at Hitler's direction, changed the picture. Consequently any new agreement with the high commissioner might be contingent upon according policing powers to the United States to insure itself against Axis infiltration of these possessions. The vital necessity of protecting the Panama Canal makes such policing imperative.

HIMMLER WILL NEED HIS GUARDS

No tears are likely to be shed in Allied circles over Russian reports that relations between the German High Command and Heinrich Hemmler, head of the Gestapo, are strained. According to these accounts, Himmler objects strongly to having his Elite Guards sent to the front and their places on the home front filled by youths of 15 and 16.

Though a ruthless gangster, if ever there was one, Himmler presumably realizes better than the High Command the explosive dangers within Germany. He knows, also, the difficulties with which he may be faced at any moment by revolt in the occupied countries. It is surely no wonder that he doesn't want his hard-boiled military police shipped to the front as ordinary cannon fodder. A time is coming, there is every reason to believe, when Herr Himmler and his Gestapo will get their just deserts. When the German High Command gets the same, things will be looking up for all of us.

POPULATION SHIFT

An address made last week by the voluble Paul McNutt about the shift of labor forces incident to war work brings to mind that the war itself can be followed by a marked redistribution of population.

Should this eventuate it may be helpful to the nation as most persons are agreed that the population should be spread out. After the Civil War the West had an economic appeal to the returning soldiers and the migration resulting was mostly to the good of the United States as a whole.

McNutt said in his speech that 10,500,000 workers must be added to the war industry labor supply before the end of 1942 and indicated that it would be necessary to direct mass movements and migrations. He added: "Our grandfathers moved in flat boats, stage coaches, on horseback and in covered wagons, across mighty rivers, broad plains, rugged mountains and blistering deserts to build a new civilization. I know their grandchildren will do anything to defend that civilization."

While this speech has some of the sterotyped aspects usually found in press agent dishups, McNutt had the kernel of a thought there.

THE SECOND PHASE

Most heartening of the deductions from the war news coming out of the Southwest Pacific is that America's success in this war is rising in direct proportion to the combat forces it is pouring into the contested regions.

At the outset America had only small complements of combatants manning the military installations of the Pacific. These were ousted at Wake, Guam, the Manila Bay area and elsewhere but after such stout resistance that their conduct will be epics of heroism to the end of America's destiny.

They gloriously added to America's record for fighting. There was only the necessity of getting men and weapons to the scene in sufficient volume to stop the Japanese spearheads. Turning the aggressors back would await the arrival of still more men and weapons.

Now it has been demonstrated that America has powerful enough forces in the Australian region to give the Japanese pause. An impressive division of the enemy fleet, bristling with big guns and bombers, has been repulsed with staggering losses. If it reforms and tries again, America demonstrably has the power to meet it and, its supply lane protected, is constantly summoning more men and machines of war.

The United States definitely is in the second phase of the conflict in which it has, with speed and purpose, assembled the means to meet Japan on a little more than an equal basis. The third and final phase, overwhelming attack on the enemy, will follow.

Straw Hat Day does not mean that every man will have a new ceiling.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILDREN HURT BY WAR RUMORS

The patriotic leaders of our country have been warning us against all sorts of poisonous rumors concerning the war. It is amazing how many adults, otherwise intelligent, will repeat these rumors to other adults, even to their children at home. Like most superstitious, these rumors are ominous, fear-inspiring.

These rumors are deliberately started by disloyal persons and active enemies in our midst. Some persons whose loyalties are only lukewarm are ever ready to dwell on these rumors and eagerly pass them along, often embellishing them with their imagination. Some other persons who think they are loyal Americans but are personally inconvenienced over economic matters incident to the national program for victory, or who would like to see the war fought and won by other people's sons, are also ready to spread these stories. This is very bad for our morale and a help to our foes.

Harmful To Children

In the first place, persons of average intelligence and patriotism should be too smart to be duped into believing such non-sense. Then they should have too nigh a level of patriotism to repeat them. It is not enough to ignore them. We need to express our indignation to anyone else who relates this insidious gossip.

Repeating rumors about the war is the same in principle as gossiping about persons of your immediate acquaintance and operates and on the same low scale of decency and is motivated by gossiping about friends. While the usual gossip may harm only one or a few persons concerned, gossip in terms of repeating or listening silently and receptively to rumors relating to our country's operation of the war harms not only all Americans but the millions of our Allies also.

In addition to the danger of spreading rumors from a standpoint of patrictism there is the danger of breaking down the moral fiber of our growing children. Scare stories repeated before children shatter their faith and burden them with fears and anxiety.

Building Up Faith

Our duty to our children and our country is to inspire these children at home and school with strong faith. It is not enough to avoid repeating rumors in our homes and seeing that no one else does so. We also must show our children by precept and example that gossip of any sort is beneath their plane and ours. Furthermore, we should strive to build faith and assurance in ourselves and our children in the final victory, ever keeping before them the precious principles we are fighting for and the value of the triumph when it will have come.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. Who should have first consideration in the use of the family car, the children or the parents?

A. Parents should. Children usually do, alas. The best way to make children selfish is for parents to make self-denials in order to give these children luxuries.

Mr. Henderson would put a ceiling on wages if he could find the shingles.

Everyone of us is against inflation—and a check on our wages.

We are a "yes—but" people.

We are for every sacrifice the other guy makes and will think up a few new ones is pressed.

We are 100 per cent for limiting the other guy's income.

We are sure he would waste it.

But we have a few conservative investments to make ourself if we can get the old envelope boosted another notch.

We are humans first and patriots second.

Anytime they want to freeze wages it's O. K. with us provided we are the exception to the rule.

At the old swimmin' hole, last one in's an old fuddie.

First one diving in may not come up as soon as expected.

Something has been added since last summer.

An old water-logged tree lies hidden under the surface.

This summer, 5,000 persons will drown in the United States.

In Pennsylvania, 400 persons will drown this year.

This year fewer people will vacation at the ocean beaches.

They will camp along rivers, streams and lakes.

They may not be familiar with swimming hazards at home.

Swimming is a refreshing relief from heat.

America needs all of its young people now as never before.

Swim for exercise but swim safely.

Isn't it idiotic to send fighting planes on slow ships if we can build them, as the experts say, to get there under their own power?

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 8:08. Sun rises tomorrow 5:44.

Very often when some men buy a new car it is because their wives want a new one.

Nature—the bees and the blossoms—say nothing and yet their sermons are convincing.

Now we are told that a smokeless stove has been invented. It will burn soft coal without smoking. Wonder how it will work in grates?

FEMININE INDECISION

Policemen (after the collision)—You saw this lady driving toward you. Why didn't you give her half the road?

Motorist—I was going to as soon as I could discover which half she wanted.

Lawyer for the auto accident victim: "Gentlemen of the Jury, the driver of the car stated he was going only four miles an hour. Think of it! The long agony of my poor, unfortunate client, the victim—as the car drove so slowly over his body!"

One has only to talk back to a policeman in a fit of anger to find out those fellows haven't any good dispositions either.

A judge has ruled that no man has to pay a detective his wife hires to watch him. Wonder what would happen if he paid the detective more than the wife has to pay?

Some time ago it was stated that our clothing might be made of rubber. That's all off now for some stretch.

Doris Dazzle was facing a problem last night when a friend rushed in. "Doris," he said, "I heard you were in a jam, so I came right over. I'm always on the job when a fellow needs a friend."

"Excelent," Doris said, "I want you to meet my girl friend from Chicago. This is a case where a friend needs a feller."

Most men are not too old to lament that the invention of the vacuum cleaner came after they, as boys, had to dig the tacks out of a dusty carpet with a screw driver at housecleaning time.

METICULOSITY

In one of the towns of the Pacific Coast a distinct earthquake shock was felt recently and when the municipal building rocked perceptibly the city fathers, then in session, left without bothering about the usual formalities.

The clerk, a man of rules and regulations, was hard put to give his minutes the proper official tone. Finally he evolved this masterpiece: "On motion of the city hall, the council adjourned."

Any war of nerves should be in charge of women who have two or three little kids. They can stand anything.

Two drunks were talking on Mercer street. One said, "What does your wife say when you stay out late?" The other replied, "I have no wife." "Then why do you go home," he was asked.

An ounce of praise is worth a pound of scolding.

Self-praise is like a circle. It ends where it begins.

The money you give, no matter how small the amount, will help to make some soldier boy happy who is in a camp waiting to fight for your country.

Father-in-Law (surveying daughter's new home): What I particularly liked about you, Edward, was that you made no appeal to me for help in furnishing your new home.

Son-in-Law: N-no. Well, you see, the first instalment isn't due for nearly a month.

In Altoona the city council has to decide if a beauty shop is a business or a profession. The council should make a personal investigation to get the right answer.

Dignity should always be backed up with social status, money—or sumpin'.

"I must tell you frankly," a doctor was saying, "that I don't like the looks of your wife."

"Oh, yeah," snorted the husband. "Well, if you ask me I'd say she's a darned sight better looking than your wife."

About the hardest thing to do in this country is trying to make people save—especially money.

News is what people like to read, want to read and ought to read.

ETIQUETTE AT TABLE

(1) From which side, left or right, of the chair should one seat oneself at table? (2) If a man is seated between two women, whose chair should be pulled out? (3) Should one push his chair back in place after rising from the table?—Stupid.

Answer: (1) Seat yourself from whichever side is more convenient—whether the left or the right side really does not matter.

(2) When seated between two women, a man should seat first the older woman, then the other one. Before taking his own seat, he must remain standing until all of the women are seated at the table. Should any woman leave the table temporarily, all men present should rise when she rises to leave and stand again when she returns.

(3) No. Unless it is necessary to move it out of the way. Rearrangement of furniture is the duty of the servant. In a servantless home of course, we must take 'the law' into our own hands and do everything possible to help our hostess.

Question: In addressing place cards, should the titles Dr., Major, Judge, etc., be used; also should Mrs. and Mr. be placed on them or Mary Jones, John Jones be used instead—J. P.

Answer: Names on place cards are prefixed by "Mr." and "Mrs." or "Miss." Men bearing titles should have them placed on the cards. Usually place cards are not used at informal dinners, but some hostesses use this easy way of seating guests even at small dinner. On such occasions, the use of Christian names only may be used on place cards.

A NAME FOR THE BABY

We'd a new arrival at our house
Whose name was "Him" and "It,"
More regular names we'd tried to find
But somehow they wouldn't fit.
"Too common these," the missus said,
"A better one we'll get."
So "It" kept right on growing but,
We hadn't named "Him" yet.

I thought at first I'd call him Jim
Or George or John or Abel
And Frank or Algernon, I thought,
Might make a nifty label
But none would do for the missus said:
"You're quite absurd, you're wet."
So the days rolled into months although
We hadn't named "Him" yet.

The missus wrote to "Pa" and "Ma"
Who both said name "It" Bill,
Or Charles or Frank or Benjamin—
(She told them they were silly)
She turned down Abraham and Tim,
And she wouldn't make a bet
With Oscar, Eddie, Clarence, so—
We hadn't named "Him" yet.

A year rolled by, the both of us
Were worried sick and slim,
When suddenly the missus yelled:
"I've got the name for 'Him'."
Ah! Now, my friends, the world goes well.
We're as happy as can be.
For "Mike" was what she named "Him"
And "Mike's" the name of me!

If you work in your garden be careful how you track dirt into the house. You know why.

In Wales laundrymen have quit doing up stiff shirts and collars for the duration. Not bad.

MISINTERPRETED

This one is from England: A plumber joined the army and went in for his trade test. He was asked to make a joint in a lead pipe. When it was finished the officer put on his papers: "Joint very neatly done." Three weeks later the man found himself head cook in the officers' mess.

We have noticed in many accidents that the chap responsible for it escapes with minor injuries.

Some men dislike women without any reason and others like them that way.

So live that when hubby comes in the front door, love won't have to fly out the back window.

THEN TRY STEADFASTLY

"I wouldn't try indefatigably to reduce,
Although my curves need flattening;
A word like that is my excuse,
Because it sounds too fattening."
—Anna W.

The danger is discarding friends who do anything wrong is that you soon have none left.

If she asks him if he still loves her, and he keep on reading and answers "Uh, huh," it is a contented home.

And now to keep an old story alive, about the Indian who every morning walked up the mountainside to pick berries which he later sold to the residents below. One day he doubled the price of his berries, and an old customer remonstrated.

"Why, John, why is this? It takes you no longer to walk up the mountain side; the crop of berries is abundant and spoiling for lack of attention. There is no shortage, and still you have doubled your price. What's he idea?"

John thought a moment, and then answered, "Damn war."

Experience may be a handicap. The fastest ship-building is done by a man who didn't know how and therefore didn't know what couldn't be done.

What's What At A Glance

Washington Likened To Lunatic Asylum Conditions Become Worse There Each Day "Foodlegging" Is Latest Worry At Capital

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, May 15 — That wartime Washington's a perfect lunatic asylum is no news. I've remarked on it myself and so have plenty of other chroniclers. It gets worst so fast, though, that it's hard to keep up with.

Weird dotty new manifestations present themselves every day.

For example, "foodlegging" has just broken out formidably.

Foodlegging of provisions, in excess of rationing regulations, and, of course, at fancy prices, corresponds to the bootlegging of liquor during the prohibition period.

"Clothieslegging" and "gaslegging" and all sorts of other "leggings" promise to follow shortly.

They not only threaten to nullify rationing but authorities are apprehensive that they'll lead to hijacking, terrorism, like old-fashioned bootlegging's various forms.

Confidence men also have been caught, getting positively rich, selling gas masks that won't work, and dozens of additional items of supposedly protective equipment, for civilian use, that any experts instantly recognize as absolutely worthless.

Elsewhere, Too

Probably the same stunts are being pulled, more or less, throughout the whole country, but the capital's the present focus of 'em.

Crimes of violence have rather dwindled in the capital of late, but vice, authorities say, is rampant. They can't keep it in hand, there are so many strangers here, whom they know nothing about.

Gambling's described as wholly uncontrollable.

The suggestion's made that it would be a bright idea to turn the tendency to account by the establishment of a government lottery, sucking the life out of it as a form of social entertainment and, at the same time, making it pay federal dividends.

I've seen government lotteries in several different countries, and I never thought that frauds of that type were very dignified businesses for governments to engage in, whether they pay or not. Nevertheless, one's boosted for here. It seems to me it would be a cheap money-making scheme for as decent a personality as Uncle Sam. A gambling-game proprietor.

I've already had occasion to remark that Washington's congestion is such as to have created an alarm lest it breed contagious disease epidemic as the summer wags along.

Health Officer George C. Ruhland has taken the alarm.

He's appealed to congress itself, submitting that a bad outbreak of typhus or cholera or yellow fever in the District of Columbia would be a bad thing even for national defense. And Congress listens to him. It lives here, too, and doesn't want to risk catching any such complaints.

Incidentally, the lawmakers devote a thought to good holes in the ground for its own members to scoot into, in the event of a hostile aerial raid over Washington.

They reckon that the Capitol building might be quite a target.

Landlords Profiteer

But housing?

Girl workers for the government are the ones there's the worst worrying about.

As first-class notabilities as Mrs Franklin D. Roosevelt and Labor Secretary Frances Perkins have taken up their cause.

Landlords are profiteering on 'em, it appears. Oh, yes, the landlords have ceiling put over 'em, but they can wiggle around restrictions, or they can refuse to rent. It's true, not only of the gals, but of families, too.

It's sufficiently demonstrated by what Washington's tenants are doing.

They're moving out into trailers.

Now, a trailer community isn't calculated to be overly sanitary.

They have 'em in every war-producing community, but Washington's the limit.

Think of having to live out the rest of your life in a trailer.

Bible Thought For Today

We measure ourselves by our attitudes toward those who try to injure us: Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst give him drink.—Romans 12:20.

Hints On Etiquette

If you demand music with your meals you are not a real gourmet. Experts in such things say that conversation is the only suitable accompaniment of good food.

Words Of Wisdom

It is better to suffer wrong than to do it, and happier to be sometimes cheated than not to trust.—Johnson.

It's disturbing to note that every spectacular achievement in the air is the work of Annapolis or West Point men. We haven't 50,000 of them.

Epitaph for every soldier who dies of malaria: "He died because Jesse Jones would not buy quinine while it was obtainable."

The World and the Mud Puddles

YOUR NEWSPAPER

The newspapers of the United States are doing a magnificent bit of war reporting. The great Bureaus of the Associated Press, the United Press and the International News Service have splendid men in all parts of the world and the great metropolitan newspapers have personal representatives here, there and everywhere, on the war fronts and in the world's Capitals, seeing things with American eyes, recording them in American hearts, and writing them for American readers with American brains.

At a meeting of the California Newspaper Publishers' Association where a representative gathering of western newsmen and advertising men met at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco, John B. Long, General Manager of the Association had this to say:

"The American newspaper publisher, large or small, daily or weekly, gambles his personal possessions and fortune against his ability to produce and distribute a newspaper that you and I as the readers will accept and patronize. That is what maintains the circulation of his paper and circulation maintains his advertising. And that's what I call economic freedom of the press."

From that economic freedom of the press has evolved the enterprising, adventurous and independent body of newspaper men, who literally write the history of this seething world as it unfolds day by day.

WASHINGTON — William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor reveals war production is "astounding" and adds: "Present production, plus even greater expansion already in sight, adds up to the doom of the Axis powers."

NEW YORK — Lee S. Buckingham, acting rationing administrator of New York admonishes the public: "Let us remember that gasoline rationing is a serious war measure and should be accepted and obeyed as such."

WASHINGTON — T. V. Soong, Chinese foreign minister reveals the Pacific war council is agreed there is too much speculation concerning military moves: "We all believe that there is danger of too much loose talk that will be giving away information of value to the enemy."

WE WHO STAY AT HOME

We who stay at home are not
Prey for bursting shell and shot,
Ours the subtler forms of death,
Victims we of rumor's breath;
Targets we of gossip's lies,
Subjects we of cunning spies.
Treason's plots and dealings small,
Help us, Lord, against them all!
We who stay at home secure
Need not fire and flame endure.
Ours the siver tests to meet;
Evil gossip and deceit,
Enemies who lurk within,
Slander's tongue and flattery's grin,
Lord above us help us all
Lest to foes like these we fall.
We who walk the sheltered street
Still have perils grave to meet
Plots and stratagems designed
To destroy our peace of mind;
Schemes to shatter faith and pride,
Tricks our people to divide.
Help us gracious Lord on high
Lest we fall to these, and die!

A New York probation officer just pleaded guilty to accepting bribes from his probationers and faces a stiff prison sentence for his crime.

A school principal has been dismissed for assigning teachers to soft jobs if they gave him presents and gratuities.

An internal revenue employe has been indicted for letting tax cheaters get by with their cheating if they made it attractive enough for him.

What kind of people are these who swear an oath of fidelity to their country and their jobs and then commit crimes against their own country?

What a rotten character it shows when, for the sake of a few dollars, a man encourages others in crime!

A government employe represents his government. He is the government.

Registers For Old Hotel Of Early Eighties Found

Two hotel registers, vintage 1880-1884, were found in the attic of the old Beisel home on the corner of Wallace and Jefferson avenues that present an interesting picture of the New Castle that was. The registers are to be donated to the New Castle Historical society by the Beisel heirs.

In fade script on yellowed paper the daily doings at the McBride House, Thomas McBride, proprietor, are chronicled. Much more than names and addresses of guests are found herein—little sidelights of life in the 80's grace in the remarks column that make for interesting reading.

For instance, every so often the remark, "Fraud, skipped," follows a name and usually the "fraud" was from New York City.

The McBride House, as far as can be learned, was not a very important hotel in New Castle and was probably not here for much more than ten years. Thomas McBride, proprietor, had his troubles in making a living—we found a little note after November 19, 1884, that said sadly and a little bitterly: "Here seven years today, cash in hand 13c!! What shall the harvest be?"

But all was not sadness at the McBride House. At least once a year the opera company stopped there and then Thomas McBride, proprietor, wrote of songs and parties through the halls. On such gala days, he wrote in his finest scrpit with elaborate lines and decorations.

The McBride House register had some strange and tragic entries. One guest's name was followed by the notation that he had been killed by a P. & L. E. Railroad and "before he paid his bill, too."

An old paper-thin maple leaf was found pressed between Wednesday and Thursday, March 19 and 20, 1882, giving rise to the suspicion that Thomas McBride, proprietor, was either an amateur naturalist or a sentimentalist. Perhaps his girl picked the leaf for him.

The winter of 1881 was very cold compared with the weather we experience nowadays. Thomas McBride, proprietor, must have thought so too for it was the only winter he bothered to record the temperatures. On February 22, 1881, the thermometer fell to 22 degrees below zero—the lowest notation of the winter.

It was with reluctance that your reporter closed the registers for they brought the feeling of another quieter world close and shut out for a few moments the grimness of the present.

DURHAM, N. H. — The bicycle built-for-ten, probably the only one of its kind, may make a comeback if the tire situation persists. RICHARDS CLASS HAS MEETING IN CHURCH

Alice Richards class of the First Presbyterian church gathered in their assembly rooms of the church Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Mary Bradford presiding over the devotional period.

Business was under the direction of their president, Mrs. Earl Dufford, when plans were made for a special dinner party to honor their former teacher, Miss Richards, the event to be in the nature of a tureen, on Tuesday, June 2, in the church dining room. Mrs. Alice McKillop has been teaching the class since Miss Richards retired.

A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mrs. Arthur French, who with Mr. French, are returned missionaries. They will take up new duties in East Liverpool, O., where he has accepted a call as acting minister of the First Presbyterian church of that vicinity. The group presented Mrs. French with a collection of lovely miscellaneous gifts to use in their future home.

Hostesses in charge included Mrs. H. S. Greenlee, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Ben Wise and Mrs. Sam Fitzgerald, who served a tasty repast.

L. T. D. CLUB HONORS MISS LEWIS AT PARTY

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Griff Lewis, of 1204 East Washington street, members of the L. T. D. club gathered on Thursday evening and gave a surprise party honoring their daughter, Mary. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Miss Lewis.

Games and chat were the diversions of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Bill Richards, Mrs. James Waldo and Mrs. James Dart.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Dave Matthews, Miss Lela Lewis and Miss Mary Preston.

The honored guest received a number of lovely gifts.

S. L. C. Club

S. L. C. club members gathered with Mrs. Paul Matey, Moravia street extension, Wednesday evening for their regular meeting.

Cards and games were the diversions, and later dainty refreshments were served.

On May 26, Mrs. Stephen Gonda, of 26 Miller street, will be hostess.

READING CIRCLE '06 PROGRAM FOR "MOTHERS"

Reading Circle '06 members, gathered Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. T. C. Colbus on Delaware avenue, for their regular session, with roll call being answered by each giving "Tribute to Mothers." The program, in honor of Mothers, follows.

"Holiest Thing Alive" was the title of the paper given by Mrs. M. P. Book. "Garden Of Poems" was given by Mrs. T. C. Armstrong, which she cleverly planned. She grouped her favorite poems, reading in her collection "Rainbow Treasure," Sweetpie Road", "Master Craftsman" and others. The next article on "My Earliest Teacher" was given by Mrs. J. Albert Wilson.

The impromptu discussion concluded the entertainment, which too, closed their seasons activities, until fall.

A picnic is planned for June, the place and date to be announced.

L. C. B. A. BRANCH ANNUAL DINNER HELD

Members of the L. C. B. A. branch, No. 467, of St. Joseph's church, enjoyed their annual dinner Thursday evening in a suburban tea room, the meal being served promptly at six o'clock.

Following the group assembled in St. Joseph's lodge rooms at 8:30 o'clock and the meeting was conducted. New member was welcomed. It was decided by the L. C. B. A. to offer mass for sons of the members who are now in service. Masses will be celebrated in St. Joseph's church every two weeks.

A social period ensued, and prizes were captured by the following: Mrs. Elizabeth Factor, Mrs. Cecelia Feeger, Mrs. Anne Mulcahy and Mrs. Marie J. Metz. June 11 is the date for the next meeting.

Playemall Club

Mrs. Carm DeLeone of West Washington street entertained the Playemall club membership in her home Thursday, with attention being given to cards. Mrs. John Grove and Mrs. Henry Robinson were prize winners. The club token was carried off by Mrs. Stanley DuBrock. As special guests they had Virginia Cast and Shirley Phillips.

On May 28, Mrs. Harry Fye of Bell avenue will entertain.

HOME NURSING GROUP HONORS MRS. T. FRENCH

Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Elmer Armstrong on the Princeton road, members of the Home Nursing class taught under the direction of Mrs. Travis French and organized by Mrs. D. E. Cole, gathered for a social time, to honor their instructress, Mrs. French.

The group, which has been meeting at regular intervals at Princeton high school since February 5, completed their required course of training yesterday, and as an expression of appreciation for services given during this period, Mrs. French was remembered with a lovely gift. The presentation was made by Mrs. J. F. Rentz, in behalf of the class.

Tea and refreshments were served from a table prettily arranged in keeping with the season. Pouring were Mrs. James Blackwood of Princeton and Mrs. A. W. Smith of Rose Point, both being wives of ministers of their respective localities.

Special guests of the occasion, were the Misses Ruth Shaffer and Susan Cole.

OAKWOOD GARDEN CLUB HAS MEETING; SPEAKER

Oakwood Garden club members gather Thursday evening for their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Sam McBride on West State street. Mrs. Julian Miller was cohostess for the occasion, and roll call was answered by each giving "an interesting place in Lawrence county."

E. C. Gatrall, president of the Lawrene County Garden Forum, was speaker of the evening, and he gave a most informative and timely talk to the group, concerning gardens.

Reports followed, with Mrs. Ralph Hay giving an account of the forum sessions, while Mrs. Fred Sontum and Pearl Atkinson reported on the Youngstown, O., garden forum activities. Following Mrs. Clayton Hofmeister contributed a fine paper on "Columbine."

Special guests were Mrs. E. C. Gatrall and Mrs. C. W. Nolan.

Tasty refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

Happy Group Club

Mrs. Anthony Delone received the Happy Group club Thursday evening at her home on Fern street.

Club members enjoyed contests in 500, high score prizes going to Mrs. Frank Bordonaro and Mrs. Joseph Quarella. Mrs. Nick Battista received the club prize.

Nicely appointed was the table, and a dainty lunch was served, Mrs. Henry DiGiacomo and Mrs. Joseph Bordonaro, Jr., aiding the hostess.

Special guests included: Mrs. Joseph Quarella, Mrs. Anthony Basile, Gloria Ann Delone, Donald Bordonaro and Mrs. Joseph Bordonaro.

On May 28, Margaret Bordonaro of South Mill street, will be hostess.

Fidelity Companions

Mrs. Carmen Picarro was a charming hostess Thursday evening when members of the Fidelity Companions gathered at her residence, DuShane street.

Tables of 500 were in play, the high score prize going to Mrs. Sam Ascione. Mrs. James Russo captured the club token.

Later in the evening the hostess served a tasty lunch, with the assistance of Mrs. Joseph Vascetti. Mrs. Anthony Colella was a special guest on this occasion.

Mrs. Angelo Filigenzi, Sr., has invited the club to her home, Division street, on May 28.

1940, Five Hundred Club

Mrs. T. W. Palmer of Jackson avenue, received the 1940 Five Hundred club Thursday evening in her home.

Tables of 500 were in play, high score prize going to Mrs. Harold Wood, Mrs. I. L. Eardley and Mrs. Leonard Saylor.

Special guest was Mrs. William Bowen. Later the hostess served a dainty repast, and she was aided by Mrs. James Saylor, Mrs. I. L. Eardley.

On May 28, Mrs. J. Saylor of Pearson street will entertain.

Eight Spots Club

Members of the Eight Spots club met Wednesday evening, at the home of Dorothy Walker, 910 Temple avenue.

Two tables of 500 were in play, high score prizes going to Eleanor Jordon and Doris Johnson.

A delicious lunch was served, the hostess being aided by her mother, Mrs. R. H. Walker.

Doris Johnson, of West Elizabeth street, will entertain on May 27.

S. E. Club Guests

Mrs. James Hanna of the Harbor road, entertained the S. E. club members Thursday evening, at a tea room, the time being devoted to bridge contests.

Mrs. L. A. Fehrenbach, Mrs. Edward Koonce, Mrs. Stanley Gerlach and Mrs. Albert Hunter won the awards. A delicious repast was served at the close of the evening.

On May 28, the club will meet with Mrs. Fehrenbach on Milton street, for a similar party.

Program Features Wimodausis Annual Spring Luncheon Event

Uplifting with hope and spirit, was the annual Spring luncheon party held in the Scottish Rite Cathedral Wednesday afternoon, by Wimodausis Club members. The occasion was in the form of a "Guest Day" celebration, which too, was carried out, appropriately featuring the theme of "Mothers Day" and honored recently newly admitted members of the club.

A "box within a box" was the unique placement for the banquet tables arranged in the spacious West diningroom where 155 were served a most delicious menu. The inner box marked places for the new members, and in the very center, was a large silk American Flag. The menu was in the hands of Mrs. George Weddell, Mrs. Harry Pearce, Mrs. Spear, Mrs. W. Scott McCaslin, Mrs. A. W. White and Mrs. William Klingensmith. The dining room was arranged by Mrs. Walter Gilmore, Mrs. Fred Hutchison, Mrs. William Stritmater, Mrs. Harry McFeaters, Mrs. Grant Shaffer, Mrs. Sadie Houston, Mrs. Ethel Shaffer, Mrs. Arch Foster, Mrs. M. Roof, Mrs. William Jenkins and Mrs. Maurice Boyd.

Mrs. George Bolinger, president, gave welcome, and spoke words of praise to Mrs. L. B. Round, chairman of the program for the day. Mrs. Round, was introduced by Mrs. Charles E. Allen, club chairman of entertainment. The former and her guest entertainers made the day most outstanding with their Mothers Day program. It portrayed in a deep sense of fine, true and intellectual thoughts for the beautiful things in life. The presentations combined the patriotic motif and paid tribute to those mothers having sons and daughters in the U. S. service during the present grave war emergency.

The program was given in the East Lodge room, which was beautifully decorated in keeping with the season. Flowers were used in profusion and a picture of "Betsy Ross" and "Whistler's Mother" hung high in flood lights, the art work of Ralph Galbraith.

Prayer was offered by Rev. William Thornton and a hymn followed, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" by the Westminster quartet composed of Joseph Thompson, Howard Armstrong, James McLaughry and James Caruso, with Keith Kingsburg, accompanist. The first tribute "For My Mother" was given by Agnes O'Neill, soprano with Edwin Lewis, accompanist. The quartet pleased with four additional numbers "Intermezzo" by Provost-Wich; "Songs My Mother Taught Me" by Dvorak; "The World Is Waiting For The Sunrise" by Arr, and "Recessional" by DeKoven. "Legende," a violin solo by Weiniawski was played by Eugene Lombardi with Keith Kingsburg, accompanist. "To My Mother" by Mrs. Helen Urmson Felch, contralto with Mr. Lewis, at the piano. Selected "Piano and Salovox Solos" and "Little Mother Of Mine" by Burleigh, were offered by Mrs. Robert Fleming. "Brothers, Sing On" by Grieg-McKinney, "Sleep" by Lebieg, "Stouthearted Men" by Romberg, "I Hear America Singing" by Arr and "Tell Me Why," Traditional Westminster song, were sung by the quartet with another violin solo "Meditation (from "Thais") by Massennet following, by Eugene Lombardi. "The Virgin's Slumber Song" by Max Reger and "God Is Everything" by Joseph Clokey were given by Agnes O'Neill.

Mrs. Bolinger made a special address of appreciation, complimenting Mrs. Round for giving her all, in this outstanding program. Mrs. Bolinger, who served as an overseas nurse in the World War No. 1 at this time, presented a single gardenia and a service flag to Mothers having sons and daughters in the U. S. Service. A trumpet solo, "The National Anthem" was sounded during this feature by Albert Phillaphant, a senior High student. Prayer to the "Boys Under Arms All Over The World" was given by Rev. Thornton. Mothers sharing, were as follows: Mesdames J. L. Reed, Oliver Shannon, H. W. Sontum, Leslie Wilson, C. A. DeReamer (two sons), Jack Bretell, (husband and son), P. H. Bridenbaugh, Milton Marshall, Bert McKibben, T. H. Hitchcock, R. L. Hildebrand, Milton Bickett, (son and daughter,) Bess Hodge, George Lyons, Harry Dinsmore, Daniel Mattox, DeLace Cole, Ed. Fritz, Carl Gaston, Howard Gates, J. F. Perelman, J. P. Piper, Earl Williams, H. W. French, W. H. Shipler, Frank Fehl, E. Thompson.

Impressive was the closing, "The Holy City" by Stephen Adams, given by Rev. Thornton, as narrator, Helen Urmson Felch as contralto soloist and Edwin Lewis, accompanist.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. George Weddell, Mrs. Harry Pearce, Mrs. W. Scott McCaslin and Mrs. J. R. Spear. While the guests were being seated, Eula Jane Johnston gave a toast to "Our Mothers" and Mrs. L. A. Wygant responded with a toast to "Our Daughters." Mrs. W. A. Thornton followed with prayer. Out of town guests were given special welcome.

The parting thought was spoken by Mrs. Bolinger, who gave McArthur's words, "Take every normal precaution for safety, but lets keep the American Flag flying."

WINONA AUXILIARY GUESTS AT BESSEMER

Winona Auxiliary members, were pleasingly received in the home of Mrs. Stephen Klamer of Bessemer, Thursday evening, who had as joint hostesses, Mrs. Raymond Touvell and Miss Mary Nord.

Routine affairs were carried out, and Mrs. M. Hedegoire, who presided, had for her subject "The Spanish Speaking American." A story dedicated to "Our Mothers" was contributed by Mrs. Paul Nord as the following feature, and adding variety, a duet was sung afterwards by Mrs. Lester Nord and Mrs. Audley Snyder. "Mother O'Mine" was read by Miss Esther Nord, and to give a dash of humor, Mrs. George Pelto gave "Ma's Tools."

New president, Mrs. Glen Stanley presided over the routine period, when reports were given. Mrs. Chester Rowe gave an account of the recent Presbyterial held in Ellwood City.

A tasty lunch was served at a late hour, brought the evening to a close.

DESSERT-BRIDGE FOR FIELD CLUB WOMEN

New Castle Field Club women, gathered for a dessert-bridge party in their club rooms Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Elmer Reiber, hostess.

Prizes fell to Mrs. Elizabeth Swartz and Mrs. J. R. Rick at the close of play.

A similar party will be featured in two weeks at the club, and it is desired those planning to attend from now on, will kindly notify the hostess. For May 27, Mrs. P. J. Baldwin will accept reservations.

P.A.W. Club

Tables of 500 claimed attention of the P.A.W. club membership Thursday evening, with Mrs. Earl Dean, Mrs. Richard Bailey and Katie Reiter capturing the prizes for honors.

A special feature was the honoring of the birthday anniversaries of two of their number, Louise Mann and Mrs. Charles Myler. Each received a shower of personal gifts, as mementos of the day.

In serving a tasty repast, the hostess was aided by Mrs. Ferd Reiter, who will entertain in two weeks at her home on East Washington street.

Hobby Lobby Club

Hobby Lobby club mmbers were guests Wednesday evening of Mrs. Keith VanFossen, Cunningham avenue. The time was devoted to a round of 500, with Mrs. Quincy Sanders and Mrs. Harold Sanders winning the prizes.

The hostess served a tasty repast at the close, with Mrs. Margaret Rogers aiding.

Attending Exercises

Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Henderson of Lincoln avenue are attending graduation exercises at Shadyside Academy today. Their son, Robert, is a member of the graduating class.

Robert is enrolling at Haverford College for the summer term.

CASTLE HILLS LADIES DAY HELD; FORM TEAMS

Ladies Day at Castle Hills Golf Course, was observed Thursday, with teeing off beginning promptly at 10 o'clock. The program for the coming year was discussed at their meeting which ensued.

It was decided to form teams, which will be classed according to the handicaps. They will play for the final prize in a play-off tournament at the close of their mid year calendar of event.

Yesterday, blind boogies was the feature, and winners were Mrs. Charles McGill and Mrs. George Wagner.

It is announced, that all those interested in forming teams for the term starting June 4, will be present at the golf course on Thursday, May 21, at 9:30 o'clock.

Sunbeam Sewing Circle

Members of the Sunbeam Sewing Circle met with Mary and Rose Fava, 612 Pearson street, Wednesday evening.

Sewing was the chief pastime, and later the members enjoyed an informal time.

Lunch was served by the hostess, and following the meeting adjourned until May 20, with Mary Freed, of 1025 Court street.

J. F. F. CLUB GUESTS THURSDAY EVENING

Mrs. Harold McCartney of North Ashland avenue, opened her home Thursday evening, to the J. F. F. club membership, the time being devoted to cards. Mrs. John Daly, Jr., and Mrs. Joseph Todd carried off the prizes. The galloper fell to Mrs. James Kearns.

A delicious repast was served at the small tables, and plans were later made to meet on Thursday, May 28, with Mrs. John Daly, Jr., of North Liberty street.

MUSIC HONORS GIVEN TWO NEW CASTLE GIRLS

At an audition given in Cleveland, O recently, word has just been received stating that two New Castlites, Miss Marjorie Fisher and Miss Lenore Pyle have been awarded scholarships at the Cleveland Institute of Music, for the coming year.

Miss Fisher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Fisher of Moody avenue and Miss Pyle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Pyle, of Sheridan avenue, are both members of the Senior High graduating class this semester.

'INDIAN SPITFIRE FUND'

(International News Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C.—A unique plan by which patriotic Indians of British Columbia will contribute to the "Indian Spitfire Fund" was recently disclosed.

Squares for a quilt were sent to every reserve in the area for embroidering with the stipulation that every Indian contributing 10 cents to the fund would have his name worked into the finished product. The quilt then will be raffled for the "Spitfire Fund."

The American Institute of Banking was organized in 1900.

Rescuers Seek To Reach Youth

Boy Trapped Under Huge Boulder In Abandoned Mine In West

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

PORTLAND, Ore., May 15 — James Harper, 16-year-old Yakima, Wash., student at Hill Military Academy, was rescued from death in a rock "coyote hole" on the slopes of Rocky Butte at 5:35 A. M. today where he had been imprisoned behind a 1,500-pound boulder for 12 hours.

PORTLAND, Me., May 15—Crushed from the hips down by a 1,500-pound boulder that pinned him to the wall of an abandoned mine shaft which he and two companions were exploring, James Harper, 16-year-old Hill Military Academy student, lay grimly conscious today as rescuers dug feverishly to free him.

Workers directed by a mining engineer worked carefully around the huge rock mass to shor up walls and ceiling of the caved-in tunnel, taking utmost care to prevent further slides from crushing the youth and those trying to free him.

Dr. Frederick Davis and an unidentified army physician worked their way 75 feet down the narrow shaft to administer sedatives to deaden the pain in the crushed lower part of Harper's body.

Despite his pain, young Harper watched without an outcry as rescue squads worked in his narrow stone prison. He took coffee and cigarettes offered to him and managed to flash an occasional wry grin through the flickering light that guided the rescue attempt.

Outside the tunnel, the ambulance waited, together with a city disaster car ready to lead it in a dash for a hospital once the youth is freed.

Harper was imprisoned in the tunnel late yesterday as he, William Mahan, 18, and another companion identified only as "Red", crawled into the tunnel situated at Rocky Butte on the eastern outskirts of Portland.

As the rock began to fall, Harper pushed Mahan to safety and was pinioned to the tunnel wall as his companions fled through the entrance.

NEW RAID SHELTER DEVICE

(International News Service)

LONDON—Air raid shelters here are today being fitted with a new device enabling them to be kept locked until needed.

The plan is similar to fire-alarm boxes in America. A small glass panel is fitted in the door which can be broken open by an attached hammer.

Persons seeking shelter during an air-raid will only have to smash the glass and pull back a bolt on the inside.

Ligne is the unit of measurement of the diameter of the lens of a watch. It is equivalent to 1-11th part of an inch.

D. James Papa Is Given Farewell

Diaz Society Of West Pittsburg Honors Fourth Member To Enter Service

On Wednesday evening in the Diaz Hall on 11th street, in West Pittsburg, the Diaz Society honored D. James Papa who will be inducted into Military Service on Saturday.

Garfield Davis and Joseph Leta, came through with timely and appropriate addresses as did Tony Nerti the Diaz Society President.

The committee in charge was: James J. Vessella, Chairman and Master of Ceremonies, John Marcontina; Wm. Caravella; Tom Carapellotti; L. J. Papa; Ralph Fundoots and Joseph LaTona.

Entertainment was provided by the Star-ettes of the West and by Anthony Germaine, Jr., and his accordion.

Toward the end of the program, Mr. Papa was presented with a compact leather shaving kit, on behalf of the Diaz Society by T. Isabella.

Mr. Papa is the third member of his family to be inducted into Military Service. He is the fourth member of the Diaz Society and the 27th from the village of West Pittsburg to go into service.

U. S. Free Press Is Enemy Number One In Hitler's Blacklist

(International News Service)

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 15.—America's free press is "enemy number one" in Adolf Hitler's blacklist of condemned institutions, Pierre J. Huss, noted International News Service war correspondent, declared in an address Thursday before the University of Missouri School of Journalism at its thirty-third annual journalism week conclave.

"But," added Huss, "Hitler is never going to succeed in abolishing the freedom of the press."

Huss, for eight years chief Berlin correspondent of the I.N.S., and who attended the University of Missouri School of Journalism, later in the day received an honor medal presented by the school for distinguished service in journalism. He was cited "for fearless, accurate and intuitive coverage of fast-breaking and complicated series of crises in European affairs of world-wide import" and for his enterprise and resourcefulness in analyzing news trends and in obtaining authoritative interviews with German leaders.

Huss came out of Germany shortly before the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor. He knew Hitler and all the leading political and military figures of Germany well and has just written a book in which he exposes the innerworkings of the Nazi organization.

In his speech Thursday Huss said that Hitler is beginning to see the handwriting on the wall.

"Hitler is desperate," said Huss. "Hitler in 1942 is at his peak. He knows he must do something now—or never. Therefore, we can expect him to make a tremendous all-out effort this summer. But that desperate offensive is doomed to failure. Hitler is going to lose the war."

Huss' audience was so large that it was necessary to use the main auditorium. Editors from various parts of the country were in attendance.

Lashing at Hitler's efforts to abolish freedom of the press, Huss declared:

"Hitler abuses journalism and its name in every way. In Berlin there are schools in which the Nazis teach what is alleged to be journalism. They teach natives of various other countries a phony type of journalism which is really nothing more than a course in fifth columning.

"In those schools there have been renegades from India, Egypt, Arabia and other countries to whom Hitler's satellites teach this technique. They have gone back to their home countries and have fifth columned for Hitler. In the Nazi schools they were taught sabotage, dynamiting, how to organize revolutionary movements and all other kinds of subversive activities.

"Right now in India we are having a perfect example of the effect of this Nazi teaching. India has been laid wide open to a Japanese advance because hundreds have long since gone back from the Nazi schools to India to sabotage the British in behalf of the Nazis."

Hitler hates the American press which enjoys such a liberty of expression, Huss said.

Stenographers Are Wanted At Capital

Expert Stenographers And Typists Badly Needed For War Work

The government's defense program has developed into an all-out war program. Never has the government mobilized manpower and equipment on such a tremendous scale as it is doing now. Thousands of stenographers have answered the call for civilian war workers. Thousands more are needed in the war department, in the navy department and many other war agencies in Washington. Not only young men and women, but also those who are of mature years are needed. Women whose husbands—perhaps whose sons—are at the front may find in this field their opportunity for patriotic service.

The Civil Service Commission has announced a new examination in which the 96-words-a-minute speed requirements has been restored. This announcement, 224, supersedes announcement 80 of 1941, in which the speed rate for stenographers was 80 words. The new examination also includes a general test. Applicants for the stenographer position will take the stenographic test, the typist test (copying from plain copy) and the general test. Typists will take the typist test and the general test. Applications for the new examination will be accepted until the needs of the service have been met.

Stenographers begin at $1,440 a year, typists at $1,260. Qualified stenographers may be advanced to secretarial positions at $1,620 a year or higher.

The stenographer test will be held at several hundred cities throughout the country. The application form (4000-ABC) may be obtained from Miss Garnet Rhodes, secretary of the Civil Service Commission, in the post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cunningham announce the birth of a son at the Jameson hospital on Saturday. He has been named William Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Fecke of Pittsourgh announce the birth of a daughter on Friday. The baby has been named Mary Susann. Mrs. Fecke will be remembered as Miss Mary Jane Glenn.

Artists League Plans Exhibit In Early Fall

New Work Will Be Shown By Lawrence County Artists At Second Annual Event

Encouraged by the success of the exhibitions staged last fall, the Artists League of this city is planning its second annual exhibition again this fall, which will be held a little earlier in the season, probably some time in November.

Tentative plans call for the exhibit to be held in The Castleton, and as in last year's case, outside judges will be secured to judge the work. The exhibits will be entirely new, and none of the works shown last year will be presented this year. Prizes in the form of defense savings stamps and bonds will be awarded the winners.

Mrs. David Dicks is resident of the Artists League and Mrs. C. Russell Brenner will be general chairman. The cooperation of other art groups in the city is expected to result in an outstanding exhibition.

A man's social class is like a woman's chastity; your offense is not in what you say about it, but in mentioning it at all.

Hero's Welcome Given To Trio By New York Public

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 15.—New Yorkers interrupted the more serious side of their war effort Thursday to give a hero's welcome—replete with tickertape and torn telephone books—to three daring naval heroes of torpedo boat warfare in waters of the Philippines.

With the tape and torn bits of the phone books fluttering down from mid-Manhattan skyscrapers, Lieut. John D. Bulkeley and two of the men he lead in daring raids on Japanese naval units rode at the head of a colorful parade launching the army and navy emergency relief campaign in the nation's 15,000 motion picture theaters.

By Bulkeley's side was his wife, who had been presented with a huge bouquet of spring flowers by Nicholas M. Schenck, national drive chairman. With him too were Lieut. Robert B. Kelly and Ensign Anthony Akers.

An estimated 250,000 wildly cheering spectators lined the sidewalks as the parade passed. Time and again, spectators tried to break through police lines to reach the heroes' car. Once a British sailor almost succeeded.

Song Festival Draws Throng

Over 650 Pupils Of City Schools Present Concert In Cathedral

NOTABLE PROGRAM IS WELL RECEIVED

Music teachers and pupils of the New Castle public schools presented A Festival of Song in the auditorium of the Cathedral Thursday evening to a crowd which filled the main floor of the auditorium and large sections of the first balcony.

Taking part in the program were 650 pupils who represented every school in the city. Dr. C. C. Green was general chairman in charge.

Starting with a chorus of 124 first and second graders, and ending with a group of five numbers by the splendid A Capella choir of the senior high school, the program included a range of choral music, folk songs, art songs, patriotic numbers, lullabys.

The first song festival on such a scale that the city has seen for many years; that it was the result of several months training by the music teachers of the city was apparent in the high quality of the performances. The selection of numbers was happily chosen, offering a wide variety that included many familiar favorites. Judging from standard of last night's performance, New Castle has a fine staff of music teachers.

Included in the song festival program were five groups of numbers; after the chorus of first and second graders, third and fourth grade pupils sang; the third group of six numbers was sung by fifth and sixth graders; then four numbers by the junior high school chorus preceded the selections by the A Capella choir. Included also were numbers by the Rose avenue school Rhythm Band and the Senior High school male quartet.

The program was carried out as given in full in the Thursday issue of The News.

When a mining company is "reorganized," it usually means that a slick guy gets most of it for his service in finding new suckers.

Union High School Presents Military Minstrel Program

Second Performance To Be Presented This Evening, In Auditorium At 8:15 O'Clock

An appreciative audience attended the first performance of the Military Minstrels of 1942, staged under the sponsorship of the music and other departments of the Union Township chool, Thursday evening in the school auditorium.

The curtain went up at 8:15 o'clock and a fair crowd was noted in attendance. This evening a repeat performance will be held at the same time.

Usually first performances of any production are "tests", but with the well-directed cast of approximately 140 entertainers, presenting in their best manner, singing, dancing numbers and minstrel jokes on the side, the show really "clicked".

Three groups, the six black face end men, baton twirlers and the cadet singing and dancing groups appeared to be the favorites with the first night audience.

Throughout the entire presentation, a military and natty theme predominated, which was appropriate for the occasion. In the second part of the show, tropical island scenes with battleships looming in the background formed the setting.

Richard Patterson, supervisor of music in the school, states that the cast has benefited by the first performance, and expects the show to be of near-perfection calibre tonight. Benefits from the show will be used for the band fund of the school.

A rough, uneven base often causes linoleum to wear unevenly. Before installing new linoleum it is a wise precaution to inspect the floor. If it is uneven, it should be smoothed down as much as possible and then covered with quarterboard, which can be had in large-size boards.

M. E. G. Auxiliary Meets On Thursday

Members of the M. E. G. Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Evelyn Marshall, 510 North Cedar street, with Mrs. Manley Broaddus as co-hostess.

Mrs. George Horchler led the devotional period.

Roll call was answered with verses of scripture.

Reports of various committees were given by Miss Ethel Scheidemantle, and Mrs. Wade Daugherty gave a report of the Presbyterial meeting which was held at Ellwood City April 23.

The topic for the month, "Latin America and Spanish Speaking Americans" was discussed by Mrs. Ramona Allen and Mrs. Sara Bender.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Miss Marshall and Mrs. Broaddus.

Mrs. Wade Daugherty is president and Mrs. F. W. Guy is advisor of the group.

Next meeting of the M. E. G. will be the second Thursday in June.

G. I. A. To B. L. E. Meets Thursday

There was a good attendance of the membership when the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers met Thursday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A.

Meeting was called to order at 1:30, and Mrs. C. A. Probst presided as the business session.

A delicious lunch was served at tables beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

Bridge, 500 and social chat were diversions of the afternoon.

The committee in charge of arrangements was Mrs. C. F. Perrine, Mrs. John Ridley, Mrs. R. W. Roberts and Mrs. R. D. Reed.

Next meeting will be on Thursday afternoon, May 28, at the Y. W. C. A.

GROUP TO PLAN FOR DINNER EVENT

Friday evening, all committeemen in charge of the St. Margaret's Society baseball dinner, and those helping with the arrangements, are to meet Friday evening, at 6 o'clock, in St. Margaret's hall, North Liberty street.

The dinner is planned for Saturday, May 23, and Mrs. James Zarilla is general chairman for the event.

St. Margaret's Planning Picnic

Members of St. Margaret's society of the seventh ward gathered for their regular meeting Thursday evening in the club rooms, South Mill street, at which time plans were discussed for a picnic on July 19.

Bartolomeo Lombardo is general chairman for this outing event and has chosen Nick Cangey and Mack Domenick to select the picnic grounds.

Nick Cangey has also been selected as the supervisor for St. Margaret's baseball team, the games now being in progress.

President Bartolomeo Lombardo was in charge and announced that a special officers and members meeting will be held soon, at which time further plans will be made for the picnic.

On June 11, the next meeting will be held. This evening the St. Margaret's bocce team will compete with the Casa Savoia bocce team in the St. Margaret's bocce court at 7:30 o'clock.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS WITH MRS. W. SAPPER

Mrs. William Sapper, of 616 West Clayton street, entertained about twenty members of the S. C. W. Bible Class, of the Presbyterian church, at her home, on Thursday evening. Mrs. Frank Wilkinson and Mrs. Thomas Foster were co-hostesses.

Mrs. Grant Shaffer had charge of the business meeting.

A social period was the diversion of the evening.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Henry Morrison, East Clayton street, the second Thursday in June.

SAM DAVY RECEIVES UNIVERSITY HONORS

Word has been received by The News from Lehigh University News Bureau, at Bethlehem, that Samuel J. Davy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Q. E. Davy, of 611 North Cedar street, was recently honored by election to one of the major student offices at Lehigh University, when he was named president of the Omicron Delta Kappa, senior honorary leadership society. This group, composed of the eleven outstanding men in the senior class, is the most influential non-governing group on the Lehigh campus, and its president is awarded a seat on Arcadia, the student governing body.

WOLF PATROL

Patrol Leader Jack Park was in charge when the Wolf patrol of Boy Scout troop 4 had their first outdoor meeting Wednesday evening.

The patrol explored the hillside and located a camp, which was named Echo Lodge.

Ceremonies were held and plans were made for members of the patrol to collect coat hangers on Saturday. The matter of the elimination of tent caterpillars was discussed and plans were made for members to help in their destruction.

Next meeting, Wednesday at Echo Lodge at 7 o'clock. Scribe, Dick Davis.

HOUSE IMPROVEMENT

Plainly visible from Mahoning avenue is an addition being made to a residence on Preston avenue. The improvement to the house is a pantry. The clean new lumber contrasts with the surrounding houses, dulled by the smoke of the mills. But, thanks for the smoke, it means much.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 4

At the Mahoning school this evening the Boy Scout troop 4 will meet at 7 o'clock. Scribe, William Weitz, Jr.

MEETING POSTPONED

Miss Grace Kelly announces that the meeting of the Green Light class of the Madison Avenue Christian church has been postponed.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Fred Theiss of North Cedar street is confined to his home with illness.

Mrs. J. O. Dickson of Edenburg is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dungan, of Newell avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Snider of 203 North Cedar street have returned after concluding a visit with friends and relatives in Meadville.

Miss Margaret Mancine of 208 Lafayette street is visiting with her husband, Private William Mancine, of Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyo.

Mrs. Anna Cherol and Mrs. Beatrice Jones of Youngstown have returned after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Louis of R. D. 7, Mahoningtown.

Mrs. Margaret Mancini, of Lafayette street, has departed for Ft. Francis E. Warren, Wyo., where she will visit with her husband, Pvt. William Mancini.

Miss Rose Diana, of South Lafayette street, and Misses Emogene Perotta, and Florence Majocha, of Montgomery avenue, have returned from Detroit, Mich., where they visited with Mrs. Francis Balog.

Tent Caterpillers On Rise In State

Favorable conditions have resulted in a great increase in the Eastern tent caterpillars this year. The caterpillars are dangerous pests and intensive efforts should be made to prevent its spread and limit its damage to trees and plants.

The simplest method of control is to remove the nest by hand and crush the caterpillars. They are usually in their nests in early morning or late evening. Trees sprayed with arsenate of lead will be protected against the ravages of the insect. Flaming torches will also get rid of them, but there is danger of permanent damage to trees with this system.

Earl Carroll's Biggest Blunder

Have A Chuckle On Nation's No. 1 Connoisseur Of Beauty; Read On

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, May 15.—There was an ugly rumor sweeping Hollywood today that Earl Carroll, known far and wide as the nation's No. 1 connoisseur of feminine beauty who claims to have judged not fewer than 500,000 girls in beauty contests, is slipping.

Doubt of the beauty expert's ability to pick 'em began when he sent a form letter to student leaders of the California Institute of Technology asking that he be allowed to select the campus beauty queen.

"His selections," the letter advised Cal-Tech students, "not only create campus interest but bear the stamp of authority."

From the welter of photographs sent in by the students, Carroll named as "the most beautiful girl on the campus" Mary Warren, a gorgeous brunette whose beauty, Carroll calculated, would make even an octogenarian sit up and take notice. He named Pat Lambert and Georgia Osgood as runners-up.

Carroll admitted in a letter announcing the results that selection of Cal-Tech's beauty queen was one big headache because "either the girls are becoming lovelier or after all these years I am slowly succumbing to beauty blindness."

There was just one thing wrong with the picture. Cal-Tech's student body is entirely male.

Students found Carroll's offer to judge campus beauties too good to pass up. Accordingly, they rushed several classmates to the makeup department of the Pasadena Community playhouse, bedecked them in a "mess of rented wigs and junk and jewelry" and had glamour photos made.

WILL PAINT WORK ROOMS AT POST OFFICE

Bids are being asked by the Federal Works Agency at Washington, D. C., for the furnishing of the materials and doing the work of painting the workrooms at the New Castle Post Office, Postmaster William R. Hanna announced today.

Bids are to be in by May 29, and it is expected that the contract will be let shortly thereafter, and that the work will be done during the coming summer.

Rescued at Sea by U. S. Patrol Plane

Official U. S. Navy Photos

After drifting for twelve days on a raft, Terrence J. Bradley, of Australia and Joseph Bieltiens, a Belgian citizen, eagerly await the approach of a U. S. patrol plane (top). Both were members of a Panamanian ship that was torpedoed off the Atlantic coast. Bradley, weakened by his arduous experience, is shown being carried ashore at Norfolk (bottom). The hardships proved too much for Bieltiens, who died shortly after his rescue. There was plenty of water, but no food aboard the life raft. (Central Press)

Taking Over Air Lines Necessary Says President

Due To Fact That U. S. Is In Fighting In New And Far Places

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Action of the army in taking over civilian air transport lines and materially curtailing passenger service was made necessary by the fact the United States is getting into the fighting more and more in new and far places, President Roosevelt declared today.

Although the army and navy are building large numbers of transport planes, still more are needed to transport increasing volume of men and supplies across the seas, the president told a press conference.

Mr. Roosevelt revealed that the army was even taking over some of the "puddle-jumpers"—one and two man planes which might be useful for training.

Anything that flies is useful to the government's war effort, he said.

The president warned that curtailment of commercial flying probably soon would affect air mail service.

Passenger service on the airlines, he indicated, will be about cut in half, but he noted that it has only been in comparatively recent years that the nation enjoyed widespread air travel and mail service. Before development of commercial aviation, he observed, the country got along pretty well.

CONTRACT LET

(International News Service)

BOSTON, May 15 — The Army Quartermaster Corps today announced awards of shoe and last contracts totaling $1,058,87.50.

For 115,956 pairs of white nurses shoes contracts included Lancaster Shoe company, Elizabeth, Pa., 8,000 pairs at $2.75; Huiskamp Bros., Keokuk, O., 10,000 pairs at $2.75.

Room Clerkette

SHE'S A "SELF-STARTER"

PERSONABLE AUDREY LINDGREN greets and registers guests at the famous Stevens Hotel in Chicago. She's one of the very few women room clerks in the country, having been promoted to fill the job of a Stevens man who is in the armed forces. Miss Lindgren says: "Hotel guests expect friendly, cheerful, intelligent service at all times. I've found that eating the 'Self-Starter Breakfast'* helps me start my days feeling my best, and I love that wonderful Kellogg flavor!"

Church Sodality Program Enjoyed

St. Vitus Sodality Entertain Mothers At Program-Party, Thursday Evening

In honor of their mothers, Sodalists of the Our Lady's Sodality of St. Vitus church gathered Thursday evening in the church basement and presented a mothers' day program, which was greatly enjoyed.

Greetings were given by Catherine Mastrangelo, and the program followed. Trumpet solo, "Mother", Frank Ruscetti; poem, "Per La Festa Del Momma", Olga Deli; Hawaiian guitar selection, "Sing Me the Rosary", Rosemarie Corlo; skit, "It Happened One Night"; Olga Deli, Margaret Naples, Edith and Louise DePolis, Mary Natale and Glorita Cioffi; poem, "Mother's Day Rosary, Marie Morelli; accordion solo, Nancy Lamacusa; duet, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine", Edith DePolis and Margaret Naples; recitation, "Somebody's Mother", Clara Lamorella; violin selections, "Old Black Joe", Angelo Filigenzi, Jr., accompanied by his father, Angelo Filigenzi, Sr.; "Salve Regina", assembly.

A May altar was dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and ferns and gardenias were used for the decorations. The oldest mother present received a gift, Mrs. Marie Staph, and the youngest, Mrs. Benjamin Augostine.

Special guests were Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, pastor of the church, who spoke on "Meaning of Mother", and Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, spiritual director, who addressed the group on "Ideal Mother". Mother Superior Henrietta spoke on "Confidence of a Mother".

Mary Chill, prefect, gave a few remarks and other speakers were: Mrs. Mary E. Conti, president of the Mother of Sorrow lodge, on "Love of a Mother", and Mrs. Frances Colao, presenting the parish C. D. of A., spoke on "Faithful Daughters". Another special guest was Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Mastrangelo, of Braddock, Pa.

Dainty refreshments were served later, on tables nicely appointed for the occasion. Members of the social committee served. Frances T. Corio was the general chairma, and the kitchen chairmen included Louise Isabelle and Margaret Carney.

The social meeting cheduled for tonight has been postponed. June 12 is the date for the next meeting.

Tire Situation Worries Babson After Survey Of Situation In U. S.

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright—1942—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

AKRON, O., May 15—I am out here again checking up the tire situation. My interest is far deeper than what it means to you and your pleasure car. Next to banking, tires are the most necessary part of almost all industry. The financial, commercial, farming, professional and manufacturing business of the nation runs on pneumatic tires. Hence, the boys in Washington should count ten before saying or doing anything hasty.

BABSON

What About Rubber?

Since I first wrote on the tire situation, the Japanese have seized nearly 90 per cent of the world's commercial bearing rubber trees. We have enough raw rubber in stock piles to supply our war needs until our new synthetic plants get going. After that, the war requirements will take all the synthetic rubber. Getting rubber now from goldenrod, milkweeds, sugar cane, etc., is practically an idle dream. Guayule which is now being planted will not produce rubber for five years. The Brazilians are too lazy to go into their wild forests to get it out. Hence, as far as getting new rubber tires for our 30,000,000 pleasure cars, we can forget it—no fooling!

The only hope I can give is that we really need rubber pneumatic tires only for the two rear wheels. Furthermore, cars are now being run without such tires on the front wheels. Webber college students at Babson Park, Fla., who have made a project of the tire problem, are operating cars with iron bands welded to the front rims; also one with wooden tires on the front rims. They now are testing out on another car with the rims filled in with cement. These cars make 30 miles, but are noisy and must be steered carefully or they will slew. Such front wheel tires are hard on the bearings of a good car.

The Future Tire

The tire industry is working day and night to solve the problem of getting a rubberless tire both tough and resilient. The best bet now seems to be a tire made of wood and covered with a cotton rope fibre 1½ inch thick protected on the sides with a metal flange and embedded in some asphalt preparation unaffected by heat or cold or standing. Such tires should go about 1000 miles. Unless the resilient qualities are secured, we must jack up our front wheels at night to prevent "flats"! Unfortunately, rubber is the only known product which has both 100 per cent toughness and 100 per cent elasticity. It truly is a most marvelous product—almost miraculous.

Of course, if sufficient rubber were available, we could get along by retreading, recapping, etc. Reclaimed rubber also has possibilities; but to get results from it, I find it necessary to put in a little honest raw rubber. This the government will not allow the tire industry to do except under a rationing system. I have followed every lead and hunted the country over for a solution. Frankly, the situation looks bad. I'm returning home from Akron with one resolve, namely, to treat my present tires as gently as a new born babe! Next to my wife and children, I shall consider them my very, very, very best friends!

Why Drive Slowly?

Statistics show that the nation's biggest stock pile of rubber is now in tires—some 150,000,000 of them. This is now in John Q. Public's hands. When the tire industry puts upon the market the solid cushion cotton fibre-asphalt tire above described, we cannot go over 30 miles an hour. Yet, if we all would confine our driving to 30 miles, our present tires would last for the duration. This is due to the following statistical fact for which I upon my honor vouch: If a tire is good for a certain mileage running 60 miles per hour, it will give double the mileage at 40 miles and three times the mileage at 30 miles per hour. The tremendous importance of this fact cannot be overemphasized. It should be pasted on every windshield.

Hence, if we have any sense, we will love, cherish, conserve and obey" our tires from this day on! This is no threat nor nonsense. I'm giving you the real dope. The answer to your tire problem is threefold: (1) Get up a half hour earlier every day and start each trip earlier so you CAN drive 30 miles per hour and not need to hurry. (2) Avoid sudden stops and starts as these are very bad on tires. (3) Double up when going to work or to market or anywhere else. This means use your car less—cutting down the mileage 50 per cent. Follow these rules and you have nothing to fear. Moreover, you will be subject to no more hardship or inconvenience than you would be with iron, wooden or cotton-asphalt tires on your front wheels. With them you cannot go over 30 miles and they may be expensive.

What About Legislation?

One of the most harmful statements on the tire situation came from Washington suggesting that our good tires might be commandeered and taken by the government. This caused millions of people to say: "If the government is to take my tires, why try to save them?" This attitude explains much of the fast driving with careless stops and starts which we see today. Now, this is what I am trying to bring about: Have every community greatly increase its traffic squad, financing the same with a fee of 50 cents to be paid by every driver every time he is caught going over 30 miles in cities and 40 miles between cities.

Keep a list of those who are caught speeding with the understanding that if it ever is necessary to take tires away from citizens, they will be taken only from those who have been caught for speeding. Moreover, the first tires seized should be from those who have been caught the most. Of course, the rationing of gasoline or a much higher gasoline tax would help the tire situation; but it will not solve the real problem. One of the best suggestions is to prohibit all night and Sunday driving without a permit. This should be done under the plan above described. Only such a plan will insure the faithful of their reward and the sinners of their punishment. I know this is not New Deal doctrine; but it's the religion I was taught when a boy. It is the religion America must return to if we are to save democracy.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

A dozen patriotic Americans, each buying one $18.75 U. S. War Bond will provide $225 for the cost of one parachute. We need one for every man in every plane, thousands of them. And we need other thousands for training and use of paratroops.

Silk formerly used in milady's silk hose and other finery now goes into parachutes and for every parachute manufactured, 20 women will have to forego the purchase of a silk dress each. But they save money to buy War Bonds every pay day.

Lantern Night At Westminster

Traditional Ceremony Is Presented On College Athletic Field

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, May 15 — One of Westminster college's traditional spring ceremonies took place Wednesday night on the athletic field.

The annual Lantern Night, a feature of many years' standing on the campus, was presented by 142 coeds of the freshman and sophomore classes, under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Taylor, head of the women's athletic department.

Starting on the hill overlooking the football field, a group of 100 girls, carrying paper lanterns, marched down onto the field, and went through a series of intricate formations before an audience seated on the bleachers. They were given musical accompaniment by the college band, under the direction of Prof. Donald O. Cameron, head of the college conservatory of music. Later they were joined by the other 42 coeds, and the ensuing formations provided a colorful and unique spectacle on the dark field.

After the girls had formed a letter W, and had sung the Westminster hymn, the ceremony concluded as the women members of the senior class marched through an archway of lanterns, and formed the numerals 1942 on a hillside above the field. The ceremony is held in honor of the graduating women.

To Test Strength Of Lewis' Union In Dairy Field

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 15. — The initial test of strength of John L. Lewis' new union "protege," the United Dairy Farmer's division of the U.M.W.'s District 50, will be made in Pittsburgh "within the near future," it was learned authoritatively today.

Participants in the forthcoming battle will be the farmers and the Pennsylvania milk control commission, which has the power to set minimum prices to be paid milk producers.

Ralph Marlatt, national organizer for the farmers, said that the union would request the commission to hold a hearing in the Pittsburgh area and that an adjustment of prices would be sought.

Navy Announces Third Casualty List During War

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 15. — The navy's third casualty list today disclosed the names of officers and men missing during the period Dec. 7, 1941 to April 15, 1942.

Earlier this month the navy announced that its casualties were 2,991 dead, 2,495 missing and 907 wounded. Several of the missing men have turned up since then.

Among those on the list of missing was Lieut. Edwin Denby Jr., whose father was secretary of the navy during the administration of President Warren G. Harding.

'MY RELIEF BY RETONGA SEEMS MARVELOUS'

Severe Distress From Indigestion And Muscular Pains Promptly Relieved And He Feels Fine, Declares Deacon Ball. Discusses Case.

MR. P. M. BALL

Little short of astonishing are many of the grateful and voluntary statements of well known men and women who come forward to tell others how the noted gastric tonic and Vitamin B-1 medicine, Retonga, relieved them of the harassing distress. For instance, Mr. P. M. Ball, prominent farmer of Winfield, W. Va., and a deacon in the Baptist Church, declares:

"Retonga relieved me of years of distress from indigestion and muscular pains that defied every other treatment I tried. At times the pain was so bad that I would have to stop whatever I was doing and stand still until it let up. I could seldom eat a meal without suffering severely from gas and bloating afterward, and the pressure up into my chest often was so bad that I felt like my breath was being cut off. Sharp, shooting pains in my back and legs were particularly bad.

"Retonga brought me such grand relief that the pain in my muscles has entirely let up, and I eat anything on the table. My appetite is fine, and I sleep like a top all night. The relief I got from one bottle of Retonga seems marvelous, and I am going to take several more bottles of this remarkable medicine."

Such grateful statements have spread Retonga's fame from coast to coast. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Eckerd's and Pay Less Store.—Adv.

Great Changes Are Seen By Principal F. L. Orth In Years At High School

Few men can look back on the course of their lives with more satisfaction and enjoyment than can Frank L. Orth, who will retire from high school work after this semester is completed. By then, Mr. Orth will have served the city as high school principal for 25 years.

Tall and spare, Mr. Orth's eyes twinkled as The News reporter interviewed him. "Young man," he said, "I don't like newspaper articles about me. It will sound as though I am boasting." And so, this article is not as full of facts as we might like, but it will picture the quiet gentleman who has been an integral part of New Castle life for three generations.

"I am a Hoosier," Mr. Orth said, allowing a flash of pride in his birthplace to show. He was born and raised in Terre Haute, Ind., and graduated from Indiana university. For a few years Mr. Orth taught science in Indiana High schools, but in 1906 he was called to New Castle to head the science department of the New Castle High school.

"New Castle High school was a little different in those days," Mr. Orth let a reminiscent smile play over his active face. "Then we had eight teachers for 250 students. Today we have 2285 students and 80 teachers. Yes, it's a lot different now."

But the greatest change in New Castle High school was not in size, Mr. Orth said. "It's in the cosmopolitan atmosphere at the school now." He explained that back in 1906 there were almost no foreign born or first generation Americans in the high school and there were but two courses. "Today, all that is changed. We have all sorts of students and all sorts of courses. We face not only the problem of preparing students for college but of preparing those who cannot get to college for life."

Mr. Orth became principal of the high school in September, 1917, when the United States was embroiled in the first World War. He has been at his post ever since, known and loved by thousands of New Castleites.

However, the advancement to principal saddened him a little. "I could not get as close to the students as I could when I was teaching them. You know," he said, and again the eyes twinkled, "a principal has to be a bit of a disciplinarian."

"But I have done my best and I hope I have succeeded. I have an awful lot of friends in New Castle and if you are bound to write this article about me, be sure and mention that I appreciated more than anything else the marvelous cooperation the people of New Castle, and my teaching staff in particular, have given me in the past 25 years."

U. S. Vice Consul Killed In Quake

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Secretary of State Cordell Hull today issued a formal statement of regret over the death of American Vice Consul John M. Slaughter in the earthquake in Guayaquil, Ecuador.

Slaughter and his wife were killed when their residence collapsed during the earthquake.

"I have learned of the tragic death of Vice Consul and Mrs. John M. Slaughter in the earthquake in Guayaquil with the deepest regret," Hull said. "This is another instance of a foreign service family who have given their lives in the service of their country in as true a sense as if they had been killed upon the battlefield."

Slaughter's home in the United States was South Bend, Ind.

Forbes To Receive Honorary Degree

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, May 15.—Russell Leroy Forbes, vice president and general manager of Air Cargo, Inc., will be one of the five men to receive honorary degrees at the Westminster college commencement ceremonies here May 25.

Forbes, who will receive the doctor of law degree, was graduated from Westminster with the class of 1918.

Urges Men Over 65 To Work On Farms In State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 15.—H. Raymond Mason, Pennsylvania director of the U. S. Employment Service, today urged men who are over 65 years of age to apply to their nearest U. S. employment office for farm work and thus help alleviate a serious shortage of farm labor.

"Many persons over 65 are still vigorous and capable of performing work in the fields," said Mason. "Such persons can make an important contribution to the war effort by registering for farm work."

Those who do so will not endanger old age benefits they may now be receiving, said Mason, because under federal requirements persons over 65 may work in non-covered occupations, such as agriculture, and still remain eligible for old age benefits.

Church Groups Protest Liquor In Camp Areas

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—Representative Louis E. Graham of Beaver has given to the House of Representatives petitions from church groups in Freedom, Beaver Falls, and Rochester urging enactment of Senate bill 860 controlling liquor sale and vice conditions in the vicinity of military camps and naval establishments.

One petition was signed by Rev. Harold C. Smith and 20 members of the United Presbyterian church of Beaver Falls. Another bore the signatures of Rev. William M. Baumgartner and 147 members of the First Methodist church of Rochester. The third was sponsored by Rev. J. R. Mohr and 65 members of the Freedom Presbyterian church.

The petitions were all referred to the House committee on military affairs.

School Concert At Wampum On Monday Night

Wampum high school band and chorus concert will be presented in the new auditorium of the school on Monday evening, May 18, at 8 o'clock, under the direction of Miss Betty Mae Boyer.

The first half of the program will be presented by the chorus and vocalists. The girls' chorus, a mixed chorus, vocal solos, trios, and ensembles will sing a variety of well-known melodies.

The band will play overtures and marches, and several of the players will give instrumental solos, during the second half of the program. Solosists will be Paul Bingham, baritone horn; Travis Bingham, tuba; Frank Bennett, clarinet; Jean Shellatree, bell lyre; Pete Capalbo, saxophone; DuWayne Goodman, cornet.

Rehearsals have been in progress for several weeks for the concert. Given annually, these Wampum concerts have become very popular, attracting large audiences.

You can trust a man who says: "What a fool I was." He has learned. What scare, us is the silence of those who blundered.

Milady's Wardrobe Will Be Curtailed

Many Changes Are Foreseen In Future As Result Of War Conditions

By JANE COCHRAN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, May 15.—Milady's wardrobe is still holding it's own today, but it's due for a diet in the months to come.

Practically every item, from snap fasteners to the frame on a woman's handbag, has been curbed, curtailed or even abolished by the W.P.B. rulings.

Some curtailment orders are minor—no dress belts more than two inches wide—and some major—no more zippers—but only bridal gowns are entirely unhampered by priorities and dependent only on cupid.

Definite and extensive as these ruling are, we won't see the results in our wardrobes for many a moon. Clothing, in all its lavish, pre-priorities extravagance, will still be sold in stores for months to come. W.P.B. rulings on clothing handed down in recent weeks apply to future manufacture, not to stocks on hand or now being made. And since manufacturers have always worked at least one or two seasons in advance. Flaring skirts and voluminous sleeves will still be on the market until well in the fall.

The shape, length and trimmings of our dresses, coats, suits, evening and playclothes were fixed in sweeping W.P.B. rulings early in April. But a survey of recent W.P.B. orders shows what a wide effect the latest ruling will have on our wardrobes.

The shadow panel comes out of slips, nightgowns can't have the flowing skirts and fluffy ruffles that are standard accessories on present models. Scanties won't be any scantier, but pajama tops can't be longer than 25 inches.

WINE SHORTAGE IN BRITAIN

(International News Service)

LONDON—Evidence of the growing shortage of wines in Britain was given by the London Diocesan Leaflet recently in an article written by the Bishop of London.

"When difficulty in maintaining a stock of communion wine is found," he wrote, "the clergy would be wise to dilute it with water."

Annual Cathedral Dinner Of St. Vitus Church, Monday

"All out for national defense" will be the motto this year for the traditional annual spaghetti dinner to be sponsored by the St. Vitus church, on Monday evening, May 18, at the Cathedral, starting at 5:30 o'clock.

On that date, it is expected that north and east siders as well as the south and west siders will troop with their families to the Cathedral—the line forming to the right—and here they will enjoy a meal which they have been looking forward to, for the past month or so.

This year, however, the thirty-third annual event assumes a more serious attitude, due to the fact that all proceeds for this event will be used by the church to purchase war bonds—thus aiding in our victory.

Dating back since the year of 1909, crowds have been attending these spaghetti dinners, the first one, older persons may remember, was held in the basement of the church. As always the meal was delicious, superbly cooked in Italian style, and the word spread. Consequently the crowds became larger, until last year when the number hit the mark of 2000. This year we have a worthy cause to fulfill, and it is up to all of the local residents to see that the mark of 2000 is exceeded, thus ensuring V for Victory. It's up to us!

According to Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, who is more than enthusiastic about this year's dinner, arrangements are coming along splendidly, and all indications point to a huge success. Father DeMita has appointed his assistant pastor, Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, as general chairman, and the two are working diligently, leaving no stone unturned, to make this patriotic dinner, "a hit."

Starting at 5:30 o'clock, the tasty dish will be served until 8:30 o'clock. Other entertainment will follow for the older folks, and at 9:30 o'clock, the main attraction (jitterbugs take note) will be a dance, the pleasing melodies to be provided by a popular orchestra of the day. Music will continue until a late hour.

Directing Affair

In order to make such a huge dinner a success, committees have been chosen and are working hard. Those on the various committees are as follows:

Executive Committee: Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, general chairman; aides—William DeCarbo, Charles DeCarbo, Sam Peluso, Carmen Sacco, Anthony Carbon, James Lombardo, Gaetano Francazio.

Seek To Collect From Sen. Guffey

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 15.—Common pleas court in Pittsburgh today considered a petition of the operators of the Hotel Redington, in Wilkes-Barre, for a writ of attachment against monies and property of U. S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey in order to collect $1,181.12 from him.

Although the hotel has won two court decisions against Guffey in attempts to collect the bill run up by Guffey managers during the 1938 campaign, so far it hasn't been able to collect compensation.

White Man Is Barred From The Self-governing Torres Strait Islands In Pacific

By W. ARTHUR DRYDEN, JR.
International News Service
Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—From cannibalism to taxes and prohibition in less than half a century—that's the record of the Torres Strait Islands, halfway between Australia and New Zealand.

To the layman, the Torres Islands, like many others in the South Seas, might seem to be populated with half civilized aborigines and head-hunters. Actually, according to the National Geographic Society, the natives are devout Christians who pay income tax, have woman suffrage, and live in modern cottages.

Ten of the islands were set aside by the Queensland Province in Australia as reserves for their 4,000 natives. The white man, who destroyed and spoiled so much of the South Sea paradise, is forbidden to enter.

Are Self-Governing

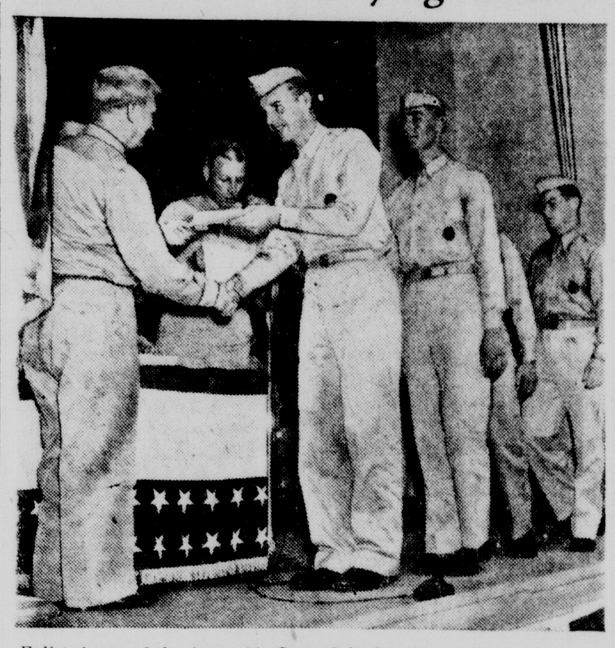
As to their legislation, the islands are self-governing, except in external affairs. Every resident over 18 is allowed to vote for the native Parliament or Council. Native policemen enforce the curfew that chases everyone off the streets at 9. Alcohol is taboo, and uncleanliness is a punishable offense.

The residents have their own typewritten newspaper, and an inter-island radio. Some 1,400 children learn English, horticulture, shipbuilding and seamanship in the native-taught schools. Principal industry is fishing, and the natives own some half million dollars in bond investments.

Formerly, in ancient times, it is said, a natural land bridge joined Australia and New Zealand. Many years ago it sunk into the ocean, leaving rock, jutting islands, which are the Torres Straits.

Thursday Island, recently bombed heavily by the Japanese is the Strait's administrative capital. Grouped around it are several islands, named Horn, likewise bombed, Tuesday, Goode, Friday, Hammond, Wednesday and Prince of Wales. The "week-day" islands are presumed to have been named by Capt. Cook, who was fond of commemorating his days of discovery.

Commission Non-Flying Officers



Enlisted men of the Army Air Corps School at Miami Beach file by to receive their commissions as second lieutenants from Maj. Gen. Weaver after an intensive ten weeks' course. The graduates, first from Air Corps' only non-flying officer candidate school, will handle supply, intelligence, and other administrative services for the men who actually fly the nation's planes. (Central Press)

War Chief Tries a Garand

Sighting over the shoulder of an American doughboy in New South Wales, F. M. Forde, Australian Army Minister, tries out a Garand rifle during a visit to a U. S. army camp. He was greatly impressed with the workings of the gun. (Central Press)

Britain's Inland Water System Used In Vital War Role

Valuable Cargoes Transported Via Canals, Eliminating Dangers Of Coastal Convoys

By JACK CAPON
International News Service
Staff Correspondent

LONDON—The war has put Britain's canals back on the map.

Neglected for years, they are now playing a vital part in the war effort.

Thousands of tons worth of valuable war materials which would otherwise have to risk the dangers of a coastal convoy are being safely transported along Britain's inland water system.

Wartime figures for the loads carried are secret, but in the year before the war, after a steady decline in the volume of traffic, the figure has dropped to 13,000,000 tons.

Pre-war figures of the labor employed on the canals reached 40,000 on the 10,000 boats then in use, but owing to the shortage of manpower the situation is now acute.

Decline of the canals in the pre-war years was due largely to fierce and uneconomic competition.

The railways own 1,000 miles of canal. Much of this was allowed to fall into disuse, while other sections were operated at rates which hit the independent canal owners.

Six regional committees have been formed to deal with the situation.

These committees include government and transport representatives—in addition to the canal interests.

Use of the canals means that apart from the safe delivery of vital war materials, much engine fuel will be saved.

A gas-oil engine barge drawing its "butty" can carry a 50-ton load. It will do a hundred mile trip on 40 gallons of crude oil.

By road, five heavy lorries would be needed for the same load, using 70 gallons of gasoline for the trip.

U. S. Army Buys Kitchen Utensils In Real Big Way

(International News Service)

BOSTON.—Uncle Sam recently did some shopping for kitchen utensils for the army.

The shopping list added up to 3,500,000 pieces of equipment and the bill was about half a million dollars.

Included were 56,982 mustard pots, 5,698 rolling pins and nearly a million forks.

At Jeffersonville, Indiana, the Quartermaster Corps has a depot where the newly acquired equipment is kept for distribution. This depot must be the largest pantry in the world.

There are 285,000 soup bowls, 284,914 tumblers, 79,000 bake pans, 3,000 nutmeg graters, 28,000 basting spoons and 25,000 bread knives recently aquired during the shopping splurge.

Just to prove the Quartermaster Corps is taking no chances, 23,000 extra covers were ordered for the mustard pots to take care of inevitable breakage.

Film Comedians Express A Few Ideas On Sarongs

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD—Promising to put a stop to the cycle of South Sea Island pictures Hollywood's film factories have been turning out recently, Abbott and Costello today were cavorting through the latest—"Pardon My Sarong."

'Maybe it's sarong thing to do," quipped Abbott, "but we've gonna take all the desert island plots and roll 'em into one."

"After we're through this one," said Abbott, "we'll probably hang."

Anyway, the zanies, in an all-out comic effort, will pay tribute to Tarzan with a tree-swinging sequence they claim will out-Tarzan Tarzan. Of course, there's a typhoon sequence. And a volcano erupts about every two reels.

"I'm so scared," said Costello, "the wardrobe department is giving me an extra heavy duty frightwig!"

Oh, yes—there's a love angle, too. Luscious Virginia Bruce and Maria Montez are on the struggling end of the heart interest.

Rubber Industry Has Its Own Set Of Trade Words

(International News Service)

AKRON—Besides being faced with the necessity of having worn tire casings recapped if the rubber shortage becomes more acute, American motorists will also be confronted with the problem of learning a set of trade words peculiar to the industry.

The most foncusing of these words—Camelback—has nothing to do with camels. It is a rubber compound used in replacing the tread on a worn tire.

Other confusing terms are:

Skid Depth—The distance between the top and bottom of the tread design on a recapped tire.

When Mary Queen of Scots was executed, her skye terrier had to be dragged away from her dead body. He later died of a broken heart.

The wonder is that rogues risk jail when there are so many legal ways to rob people.

James Haydon Is Honored At Party

Water Company Employes Stage Celebration On Thursday Evening

Employes of the City of New Castle Water company honored James Haydon, a fellow worker, who is leaving this week for service in the United States army, having been summoned by his Selective Service board for duty, a farewell party being held in Clendenin hall Thursday evening.

Frank Usselton acted as master of ceremonies and the honored guest was presented with a handsome traveling kit. Bill Usselton, who will leave with the same group, was a special guest.

LONDON—"Save food, save paper, save rubber, save metal, save fuel" has become a standing order in Britain. Today there's an addition: "Soldiers must not consider their socks unserviceable until the hole has reached a diameter of one inch or more" states a British army order.

OIL MEN DIG TO CHINA

NEW YORK—American oil men in their search for the "black gold" drilled through more than 18,000 miles of earth during 1941, according to the American Petroleum Institute. The mileage is the equivalent of a round-trip through the earth to China, with some 2,000 miles to spare.

Principal R. G. Leslie Has Served City Schools For Past Forty-One Years

Every day at noon, Roy G. Leslie, Principal of Highland and McGill schools, goes down to the basement of Highland school to eat a lunch his wife packed for him that morning. The shrill happy voices of children fill his ears and he is satisfied.

Mr. Leslie has been on the job there since 1924, but yesterday he announced his retirement to become effective at the end of this semester. Altogether, he has been connected with the New Castle school system since 1901 when he became the first principal of the old Lawrence school in the Seventh Ward.

Mr. Leslie said there had been many amusing happenings in his teaching life. "For instance," he smiled, "there was the time I asked a little girl what the preacher had talked about last Sunday. She answered that he had spoken of the Holy Ghost, and rattled right on that Mommy told her there were no ghosts, so which was a lier?"

Mr. Leslie finally managed to persuade the little girl that neither had lied and he said that the story illustrates the working of children's minds. "That's one of the reasons I have enjoyed my work so much. I never know quite what to expect next."

Mr. Leslie graduated from Slippery Rock college in 1899. He has been teaching since 1885 in North Beaver Township, and came to New Castle in 1901. He holds M. A. degrees from the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Pennsylvania.

During his lifetime in educational work in New Castle, Mr. Leslie has been actively associated with the Pennsylvania State Educational Association, twice being president of the New Castle Branch of the Association. He is a life member of the National Education, member of the Department of Elementary School Principals, of the Progressive Education Association, the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

A small, active man, Mr. Leslie estimates that he has known thousands of New Castle children during his career in education. A constant stream of his present children, were trooping in and out of Mr. Leslie's simple office on the second floor of Highland school during his interview. It had a roll-top desk, a few chairs and two tables—"that's enough for me," said Mr. Leslie. "I never did get used to those modern cluttered-up offices."

Perhaps the greatest satisfaction Mr. Leslie has had from life was the knowing of so many children at their formative age and the knowledge that his work would have an effect on them for the rest of their lives.

"Oh, I have enjoyed it all, though. I have worked in a fine community and have always had excellent support from the parents and the people of New Castle. Most of all I am thankful for the loyal force of teachers that I have worked with."

Your reporter knows something of the loyalty of his teachers. One of them had approached him and asked him "to give Mr. Leslie a good write-up. We certainly do hate to let him go," she said.

Mr. Leslie is married and has two children. Mrs. Helen Hartman of Oil City and Harold Leslie at the Army Air Corps Technical School at Chanute Field in Illinois.

Receives Letter From Her Son In Australia

(Special To The News)

WAMPUM, May 15.—Mrs. Dal Martin of this community has received a letter written by her son, Private Willard Martin, who is now in Australia. The letter is dated April 1 and reads as follows:

Dear Mother, How are you all back home? I am fine, well and happy and I hope you all are O. K. I hope you have received my letters I sent you. As yet, I have not had any reply, but expect to in a few weeks. We are in Australia but our mail comes through San Francisco. We arrived here March 29 and boy, it was good to get on dry land. We were on the ship 40 days and nights.

I want you to know how nice it is here. We have a good place to sleep and the place is very much the same as home. People are very friendly and treat the Yanks swell. There is difference in the money here and they drive on the left side of the road and the steering wheels are on the right.

The weather is very nice, cool at night and warm through the day. It is autumn here. I imagine it gets plenty warm in summer months. Flowers, trees and grass are lovely. Really, I like it very much; miss you all, too.

Have been to a stage show, dance, and boy, the girls are truly lovely. I cannot tell you much as you know the mail is all censored. I shall write to you every week if possible and tell you all I can and you answer and don't worry, mother, I am O. K. Tell everybody "hello" and to write to me. "Bud."

WARTIME SUMMER SCHOOL

BOSTON — The Museum of Fine Arts will conduct a war-time summer school this year to speed up classes in camouflage, photography and lithography. Russell T. Smith, head of the school, believes industrial camouflage will soon prove too large a task for military groups alone and will require the aid of trained artists.

Large Class At Slippery Rock

Commencement At State Teachers College Scheduled For Monday, May 25

DR. CLAUSEN WILL DELIVER ADDRESS

(Special To The News)

SLIPPERY ROCK, May 15.—At the fifty-third annual commencement to be held at State Teachers College, on May 25, bachelor's degrees will be conferred upon ninety-one graduates. Ten members of the class completed requirements for degrees at the close of the first semester, but have been invited to return to the campus to participate in commencement activities. More than fifty additional members of the 1942 class will be graduated at the close of the summer session.

Commencement In Morning

At the commencement exercises, to be held in the college chapel at 10 o'clock on May 25, Dr. Bernard C. Clausen, pastor of the First Baptist church, Pittsburgh, will deliver the address. He has chosen as his subject, "The Point of No Return." The invocation and benediction will be offered by the Rev. Charles S. Aldrich, pastor of the Methodist church in Slippery Rock.

Music will be provided by the college A Cappella choir under the direction of John A. Van Vorst, with Miss Gladys Sanderson at the organ.

Presentation of graduates will be made by Dr. Cornelius Jaarsma, dean of instruction, and degrees will be conferred and diplomas awarded by Dr. John A. Entz, president of the college.

The Rev. James L. Chestnut, pastor of Bellevue Presbyterian church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the service to be held in the college chapel Sunday afternoon, May 24, at two o'clock. His subject is "The Crown of Freedom." Reverend H. Cameron McClure, pastor of the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church will assist in the service. Mr. Van Vorst will again have charge of the music.

Events scheduled for Saturday, May 23, include alumni luncheon in the college dining room at 1:30, open house at the president's residence at three o'clock, a banquet for the graduation class at 6:30, and the annual alumni dance in the college gymnasium at eight o'clock.

The 1942 candidates for degrees at the close of this semester are:

Coffee on Wheels—That's Service!

—USO

Where the soldier can't go to the USO, the USO goes to the soldier. Here, "somewhere in Hawaii" under the ever-present peril of Japanese bombers, the staff of a USO Mobile Unit serves coffee to two service men in tropical kit at an outpost far from the nearest USO clubhouse.

These motorized units are serving soldiers, sailors and marines detached to duty in remote spots, especially those in coastal areas of the United States and Hawaii. And it's not only "coffee-and" that they bring. There are cigarettes, candy, books, magazines, newspapers, writing material. The Mobile Unit carries a movie machine to the service men in isolated posts.

This is one of the services expanding under the program of USO'S War Fund Campaign, which will be held between May 11 and July 4 in a nationwide drive to supply recreation, entertainment and comforts to America's fighting men and the civilian forces behind the lines.

Mobile units serve those who cannot get to one of the 400-odd USO clubhouses near army and navy stations.

Component agencies of USO are the Young Men's Christian Associations, the National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Young Women's Christian Associations, the Jewish Welfare Board and the National Travelers Aid Association.

Mexico Aroused By Sinking Of Tanker By Sub

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, My 15.—If Mexico has not received "complete satisfaction" by May 21 for the sinking of the tanker Potrero del Llano off the Florida coast by a submarine, the government will adopt measures "which the national honor exacts", Foreign Minister Ezequiel Padilla declared today in a statement to the Axis powers.

Padilla's note was handed by the Mexican charge d'affairs in Stockholm to the Swedish foreign office with the request that it be transmitted to Adolf Hitler, King Victor Immanuel of Italy and Emperor Hirohito.

The 6,132-(ton tanker went down near Miami at 11 p. m. Wednesday after being torpedoed, although it carried "all external signs of its nationality and navigated with lights on," Padilla said.

Twenty-two of a crew of 35 have been saved but the remaining 13 are feared lost, he disclosed.

The foreign minister termed the sinking "an unspeakable outrage".

"It not only was an aggression against the most elementary humanitarian principles, but a flagrant violation of international law," he declared.

Seek More Sugar For Home Canning

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—Prospective loss of much of the home canning market drew from a national association of peach growers today a sharp request that the war production board "make immediate upward revision of its sugar allowances for home canning and preserving."

At a joint marketing conference called by the national peach council of growers, chain and independent distributors and agricultural officials, the organization "deplored the waste of essential human food threatened by the present inadequate allowance of sugar for home canning and preserving."

PRIVATE PHONES BANNED

(International News Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C. — Even though you had a brand new house in Vancouver, you would not be able to get a telephone.

This was the recent edict of the British Columbia Telephone Company which announced that any new installations would be allowed only under order from the dominion government metals controller.

SUFFERS INJURY

Frederick Teece, aged 18 years, of Hart street, R. F. D. No. 2, suffered a puncture wound of the left arm while at work at the United Engineering Co. site on Thursday morning, when a board fell and struck a protruding nail puncturing his arm. He received treatment at the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Stream-Lined Train Building Out For Duration

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, May 15 — The Pullman-Standard car manufacturing company is winding up for the duration, the construction of streamline trains, and in converting its streamline building talent to the production of sub-chasers for the Navy.

This was disclosed today by company officials, who said the building of freight cars also is being brought to a close as a result of a war production order.

In fact, the big manufacturing concern, which is celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary of operation this year, is shifting almost entirely to war production. It now is turning out a great many war materials, including tanks, trench mortars, large howitzers, heavy projectiles and wings for airplanes.

May Pageant At Grove City College

Three Hundred Co-eds To Take Part In Program Saturday Afternoon

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, May 15.—The May Pageant, outstanding spectacle of the year at Grove City College, will be presented at the Athletic Field, Saturday afternoon, when more than 300 co-eds, colorfully costumed, will appear in ceremonies at which Miss Jean Elkin, senior, of Pittsburgh, will be crowned May Queen.

Hundreds of spectators, including a number of former May Queens, will be present.

Selected from the Women's Health Education Department, to appear as the May Queen's Court, are: Junior Queen, Jean Iddings, Clearfield; sceptre bearer, Nan Iverson, Elberon, New Jersey; coronation officer, Katherine Wilson, Beaver; crown bearer, Jane Sheeler, Eggertsville, New York, and the following ladies-in-waiting: Kathleen Greene, New Castle; Marie McMunigle, Jamestown, Pa.; Betty Camera, Allentown, Pa.; and Nedra Trezona, Greenville, Pa.

Pages from the History of Physical Education" will be depicted in the pageant prepared by Miss Esther Post, of the Department of Physical Education for Women. The pageant will trace the history of athletics from the early days of Greece and Rome, through the jousts and tournaments of the Middle Ages, to the present. It will include Swedish and Danish drills, designed to promote the growth of a stronger state. At the conclusion of the pageant, a series of modern sports will be presented, including burlesqued baseball and football games.

Moscow Reports German Reserves Are Reeling Back

recaptured a number of towns and villages, including large centers of resistance, in the Kharkov sector.

The Soviet offensive, on land and sea and in the air, is growing in intensity despite a sudden onset of unfavorable weather, well-informed sources said.

Military experts said that operations of the last few days proved conclusively that Soviet artillery is superior to the German while the Red tanks are far more powerful. German infantry troops are in dread of Russian bayonets, it was said.

Claim Nazi Morale Lower

Soviet forces continue to hold the initiative in the air above Kharkov despite the fact the Germans are throwing in masses of new Heinkels and Messerschmitts.

Russian units won a fierce two-day battle at an unnamed spot on the western front, precipitated by a German counter-attack in which the enemy used bombers and heavy artillery.

Latest reports said the Germans were continuing to bring up reserves, which are immediately hurled into action, with tanks supporting the infantry.

Bad weather and fierce German resistance reduced the speed of the initial Soviet advance in the Kharkov sector, but a number of populated points, including large defense junctions, already have been taken.

Trap Is Failure

One of the most sanguine encounters in yesterday's fighting occurred when the Germans retreated on a narrow sector, hoping to draw the Russians into a wedge where they could be subjected to cross-fire. The Soviet commander saw the trap, reinforced his units with artillery and tanks and then daringly entered the wedge.

He succeeded in forcing a real German retreat by subjecting the enemy to devastating fire from both flanks.

While weather conditions are hampering the use of airplanes, the Red air force was reported to have shot down 28 Nazi craft in the last two days.

The noon communique of the Red army declared that 1,750 Germans had been "annihilated" on the Kharkov front since start of the three-day old offensive to recapture the Nazi stronghold.

Stubborn Fighting

"Stubborn fighting continued throughout the night of the Kerch Peninsula," the communique said.

"The Soviets are continuing their offensive in the direction of Kharkov."

Some 150 German troops were taken prisoner in the Kharkov drive, it was said.

The Red armies moving in on Kharkov under command of Marshal Semyon Timoshenko were reported to have driven a strong wedge into the German defenses and pierced the Nazi line at two places.

(Reuters (British) news agency reported from "somewhere on the German frontier" receipt of an Axis dispatch from the Ukraine which admitted Marshal Timoshenko's forces had pushed across the Donets river and advanced seven miles to the west toward Kharkov. The Nazis were retiring slowly, it was conceded while "awaiting reinforcements.")

Assault On Leningrad Front

As the Russians heightened their drive to oust the enemy from Kharkov other Soviet forces made further advances in a slashing assault on the Leningrad front.

A further withdrawal was forced on the Kerch Peninsula, however.

The Red army, in a special bulletin direct from the front line in the Kharkov area, reported that the Russian advance against that important industrial city in the Ukraine continued without let-up throughout the morning.

Scores of thousands of Soviet troops were reported swinging into action along the entire front from Leningrad to Kharkov in the opening phase of an apparent Russian spring offensive. Red infantry forces followed close behind multitudes of Russian tanks.

Nazis Lose 150 Tanks

The Germans were said to have lost at least 150 tanks, many prisoners and much war material in the first two days of the large-scale Russian assault on Kharkov.

(The Daily Express in London said that Marshal Timoshenko throughout the winter had massed an army of 2,500,000 superbly trained and well equipped troops in preparation for the Kharkov drive. He was said to be supported by 3,000 tanks and 1,500 front line planes.

(The Express described the positions already captured by the Russians on the outskirts of Kharkov as "acres of ground covered by a maze of defenses." The Nazis were said to have built many deep underground fortresses linked by tunnels and flanked by tank traps and mines. Large numbers of Germans were reported trapped underground by the swift Russian advance.)

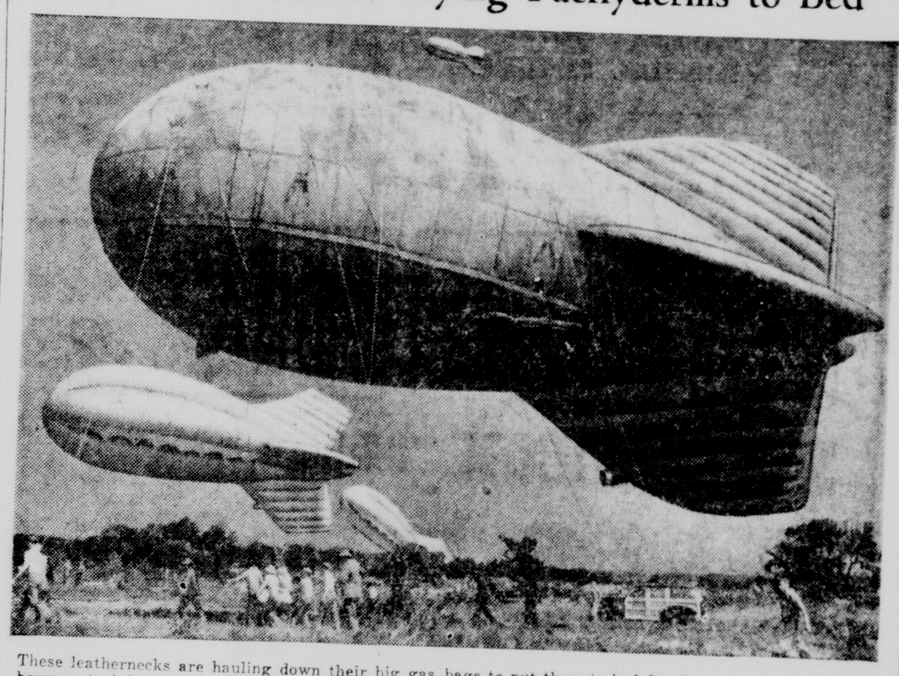
Put U. S. Marine Flying Pachyderms to Bed



These leathernecks are hauling down their big gas bags to put them to bed for the night at the balloon barrage training grounds at Parris Island, S. C. The flying pachyderms would be of a great hazard to commercial planes if they were permitted to remain aloft after sunset. Ground crews are walking the balloons to their parking area. (Central Press)

BARRAGE BALLOON WINCHMEN EXHIBIT THEIR SKILL

The winchman is a most important man in the manipulation of barrage balloons. His job is to raise and lower the unwieldly gas bags and he has to "play" the balloon with the vagrant winds. He must be constantly on the alert to prevent a sudden gust snapping the cable and causing loss or wreck of the balloon. Members of a United States Marine Corps ground crew are seen here as they lower a barrage balloon of the group at Parris Island, S. C.

Governor Makes Driving Appeal To State Drivers

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 14.—An appeal was made today to motorists in Pennsylvania by Gov. Arthur H James voluntarily to curtail their driving, regardless of the type of gasoline rationing cards they have.

"Patriotism demands that none of us drive a single mile which can be avoided," said the governor. "In bringing the gasoline to the eastern seaboard, the sacrifice in lives and property is so great that not one gallon should be used that is not absolutely necessary."

The chief executive stated that he had confidence in the sincerity of most people when they applied for rationing cards. However, he added, "If there has been 'chiseling' in the applications for the more liberal types of ration cards, it is inevitable that most of the abuse will be discovered and corrected."

"Anyone who is conscious of having exaggerated his needs for selfish reasons would be wise to correct the matter himself," advised Governor James, "rather than suffer the embarrassment and possible penalties of having his application investigated." The penalties for misrepresentation are 10 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine.

Show Jap Claims To Be Untrue

(International News Service)

MELBOURNE, May 15. — Photographs of the Coral sea battle taken from United States bombers completely disprove Japanese claims that the great sea and air engagement was broken off because of bad weather, it was revealed today.

The photographs show the weather to have been ideal, with good visibility and cloudless skies.

One picture clearly shows the ships taking part in the battle that resulted in a rout of the Japanese forces.

State May Use Butler Hospital

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 15.—In view of the fact that the Federal government has decided not to purchase the Butler sanatorium for army use, the state will probably go ahead now with its original plan to turn the unoccupied institution into a hospital for tubercular mental patients, said Gov. Arthur H. James Thursday.

The governor said he would confer soon with acting Secretary of Health A. H. Stewart relative to the matter. "No final decision has yet been arrived at," he stated, adding that it was possible they would use one of the other tuberculosis sanatorium for mental patients and transfer its inmates to Butler.

USO

When You Give to the USO

To give accurate information about the nature and tasks of the USO, the NEWS will print this question and answer column for the duration of the USO drive.

Question: About the shows the USO brings to camps—are they the type of show our boys should be seeing?

Answer: The USO is run by the YMCA, The National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, the YWCA, the Jewish Welfare Board and the National Travelers Aid Association. It is unlikely that these organizations would bring any shows to the boys that would corrupt their morals.

The shows that have been presented in the camps by the USO Camp-Shows, Inc., range from opera to vaudeville and are eagerly awaited by our soldiers, sailors and marines. Famous personages give freely of their talents to help the boys get enjoyment while in camp.

It is worth noting that there is no admission for any of the USO great circuit of camp shows.

BOY ENLISTS IN ARMY

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA — After eight days in the Army, Peter Perrie, 14, is back in his eighth grade school room. Peter convinced recruiting officers that he was 19 and spent eight days in Fort Meade before his father discovered his whereabouts and secured his discharge because of age. The boy assured the top sergeant that he would be back when he was 18, and said he planned to spend his week's pay for a birthday present for his father.

STAGE-DOOR JOHNNY GONE

(International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS — And now the stage door Johnny has joined the list of vanishing Americans.

His disappearance was reported somewhat sadly recently by Vela Cerese, a Metropolitan Opera ballerina, in New Orleans on a visit with her mother. If he does exist, Miss Cerese says, he isn't seen around the back door of the Met house.

VALLEJO, Calif.—Because they were "left out in the cold," Mare Island Navy Yard workers who get off work at midnight will now be able to attend a "swing shift dance."

The dance program, sponsored by the Vallejo USO, is held every Thursday from 12:30 A. M. to 3 A. M.

Economist Discusses Post-War Problems

Speaking in the W. Charles Wallace Memorial Chapel at Westminster, Thursday evening, Dr. Jacob Viner, professor of economics at the University of Chicago, advisor to the United States Treasury, and past President of the American Economic Association, addressed an audience composed mostly of business men of this region, on "Objectives of Post-War International Economic Objectives."

The series is sponsored by the Economic and Business Foundation, Inc., of New Wilmington, of which Capt. William McKee of Westminster College is president, and H. B. McDowell, of Sharon, chairman of the board of trustees.

Dr. Viner opened his talk with the statement that we must start post-war planning now with a realistic approach, not defeatism or "Utopian blueprints." If we wait until later to plan, "there won't be time that way."

Post-war planning is admittedly a very difficult task; particularly in view of having to set up hypothese on which to base the plan, and the fact that any plan "must be flexible if it is to be intelligent, and therefore cannot be detailed."

Touching on the political aspect of settting up post-war objectives, the speaker stated that it requires harder and more courageous thinking than do the economic problems.

Dr. Viner sees the need for a pooling of national sovereignties after the war, with full membership of all great powers in an improved League of Nations, whose trouble was that it didn't go far enough and was only a symbol.

The first assumption in economic post-war planning, and one which the economics expert stressed, was that the government must take the responsibility for preventing mass unemployment.

Another line of economic reform would look toward equality of trade conditions. Dr. Viner would aim, not at world free trade, which is undesirable from our American point of view, but at a maximum tariff level of e. g., 30 % to be attained slowly over a period of years.

As a flexible formula for exchange stability, he proposes international agreement on the rate of gold production or on the value of gold, thus stabilizing currency on a blend of the gold standard and price levels.

In conclusion, he said, "We should emerge from this war with a satisfactory military security—this is the first consideration—and no hatred of peoples, for the price of not winning the peace will be another war."

Local People Are Buying Coal Early

Government Gets Cooperation In Early Buying From New Castleites

New Castle residents are observing patriotically Uncle Sam's request that they buy coal early this year. The reason for the governmental request was to free transportation facilities next fall and winter for more vital things than carrying civilian coal.

According to several New Castle coal dealers, deliveries are up 100 per cent this month over last year. Each yard visited was working near capacity, shooting out orders as soon as coal came to them from the wholesalers. "We have never had anything like this," one of the local dealers said, "usually we don't do anything at all for the months of April, May and June but we are as busy as we ever were, even during the peak months, right now."

According to the dealers, there is a backlog of orders that they have not yet filled on their books because of the unusual demand. "But that is nothing to worry about. Deliveries in everything are slow these days," according to one of the dealers.

The situation is causing the coal dealers a lot of extra work, though. They have been working at full speed all winter and the government's request, so well did New Castle cooperate, keeps them right on working into spring and most of them expect the rush to continue. "Yes, we are working hard," said one, "but if we are helping the government in its transportation problems we are more than glad to do it."

The local dealers warn, however, that due to the rush there might be a little delay in delivery. They were unanimous in saying that the people were cooperating wonderfully and that they would be able to fill any and all orders for coal.

A CASE OF TURNABOUT

(International News Service)

GLOUCESTER, N. J.—It's a case of turn-about at the Gloucester Immigration Station, where butlers, cooks, houseboys and maids who, as enemy aliens, are now being waited upon, instead of vice versa.

To some of them at least, it's like being on pension and life is far from unpleasant. They're housed in an old white mansion and the three-story detention building, built during the first World War.

Honor Bowling League Champs

Eagles And Moose Win Championship In Respective Bowling Loops

ROBINSON TO HEAD CITY ASSOCIATION

Bowlers of the City and Industrial league were guests last night at a banquet held in the F. O. E. banquet room during which the City Bowling association, a new organization was born. One hundred fifty attended the fete.

The Eagles captured the title in the City loop and the Loyal Order of Moose apprehended similar honors in the Industrial league, according to C. Durbin, statistican for both circuits.

Believing that the City Bowling association was a necessity, the organization was formed with officers as follows: president, W. Robinson; Secretary, George Shook and Treasurer, Lyle Hughes.

The wind-up found City league teams located as follows: Eagles, Fort Pitt, Marquish & Hinish, West Pittsburg, L. O. O. M., Pennsylvania Power, Central Food and Slovak club. James Thomas is president.

The standing of the Industrial loop follows: Loyal Order of Moose, Shook's Colts, St. Margaret's, New Castle Steam Plant, Carms, Mooseheart, West Side Tigers and News. J. D. Thompson is president.

C. Durbin announced scores for the City league as follows:

Team high for three games, Moose 2845; one game, Eagles, 1023; Individual high, 39 games, Durbin 667; Individual high, 1 game, W. Robinson, 247.

Industrial league scores:

Team high for three games, Moose 7703; Individual high, 3 games, Thomas and Kovach tied, 627; individual high, 1 game, Durbin, 247.

President George Cowan of the F. O. E. received in behalf of the champion Eagles of the City league a beautiful trophy. Prizes also were presented to the Moose and individual bowlers.

Pat Kearns, Ted Nelson, Ed. Van Deusen, Red Mehalic and T. C. Cochran made brief addresses. J. D. Thompson was chairman of the joint committee.

It was reported that Paul La Scola and Carm De Leone, Moose bowlers, broke into the money in the National Moose tourney at Fort Wayne recently. The former bowled 708 in the singles and De Leone, 645. High tourney was 749.

EXPERIENCED TRAVELER

Joe Abreu, Red infieder, drove 6900 miles to reach camp. He started out to join Milwaukee at Ocala, Fla. He was sold to Los Angeles and reversed his route. Reaching Los Angeles he learned he had been sold to the Reds.

Local Track Team Set For W.P.I.A.L. Meet On Saturday

New Castle High Athletes Bid For Elusive Prize In Pitt Stadium

New Castle High's track team is prepared to bid for the most luscious spring athletic prize in Western Pennsylvania—the W. P. I. A. L. crown.

The annual affair will be held in Pitt stadium on Saturday.

The city will be represented by one of the most talented arrays of athletes to flaunt the school's colors in many years.

Coach "Bill" Klee today said that the local squad will include the 11 boys who qualified in the W. P. I. A. L. meet last Friday in Beaver Falls. The boys are:

Burris, Currie, Genkinger, Jacobs, Lee, Lach, Donegan, Paradise, Roussos, Gunn and Falk.

Piloted by the "big three," Paradise, Lee and Currie, the local gravel grinders rate an excellent chance of gobbling the elusive crown.

William Paradise will endeavor to complete an undefeated season in the 440-yard jaunt. Paradise, a crack half-miler, may forsake the 880 grind to participate in one of the relays. This may have to be done due to the fact that the 440 and half-mile events will be run so that a participant will get little rest in between the two runs.

Russ Currie, who has lightning in his heels, will fly in the 100 and 220-yard treks. In addition, Currie may vie in the broad jump.

Bobby Lee has his right arm in fine condition for a couple of the weight events.

AUSPICIOUS START

Counting up improvements over last year in baseball, how about Lew Riggs in the Brooklyn pinch-hitting department? The Carolina planter had a triple as his first blow as a pinch-hitter last year. This year his first smack in pinch role was for four bases, a resounding homer into the Polo Grounds upper deck.

Elder A. C., Bessemer City League Leaders

West Side Tigers Surprise W. Pittsburg, 11-8; Indies Nip Slovaks, 7-6

THREE MORE GAMES BILLED FOR TONIGHT

Bessemer and the Elder A. C. today share the City Baseball league penthouse with a pair of victories.

While the leaders continued their victory march, the West Side Tigers and Lawrence Indies emerged triumphant Thursday night in exciting clashes.

ELDERS 3, MOOSE 1

With Dorey Gunnett turning in a two-hitter, the Elder A. C. spoiled the Moose's record, 3-1, on Marshall field.

Gunnett recorded nine strikeouts. Parilla, with two timely bingles, led the attack for the Elders. Weisz's play at short nipped several Moose opportunities. Fava and Smiley counted doubles.

TIGERS 11, W. PITTSBURG 8

Ponderous stick work by "Ducky" Guinaugh and Dick Biddle was mainly responsible for the West Side Tigers' 11-8 surprise triumph over the West Pittsburg "Gas House Gang" on Lee avenue field.

Trailing 8-7 in the last half of the sixth, the Tigers exploded with a four-run onslaught which netted them their initial loop victory. W. Fittsburgh took the front post with a handful of runs in the fourth. Guinaugh drove in five runs with a double and a pair of singles. Biddle counted a two-bagger and two singles. J. DeMonoco starred for the losers, ringing two doubles and a single.

BESSEMER ROLLS ON

Hammering out 13 hits of all descriptions while Pitcher Stanley chucked a two-hitter, Bessemer annexed its second straight win, toppling the Croton A. C., 11-2, at Bessemer.

Bessemer settled the issue in the first three frames with a half dozen run splurge. In the fifth the "Cement City" crew added five more markers for good measure. Tropea, Calderaro, Stanley, who toiled on the mound, Vraeble and Clark led the attack. Mayberry and Gorgacz collected the only Croton swats.

INDIES NUDGE SLOVAKS

In a typical tooth and nail tussle, the Lawrence Indies hung up a 7-6 victory at the expense of the Slovaks in an eight inning fray played on Cedar street grounds.

The Slovaks, who poked out a dozen hits, grabbed a trio of runs in the third. The Indies deadlocked the contest in their half of the canto and forged ahead 6-3 in the fourth. In the fifth and sixth, the Slovaks tied the score.

Gennock whacked a homer for the Indies. He also singled. J. Shafruitt, Budai, Mingione and Sabala were Slovak aces.

Dudek Medalist In Church Loop

Three Teams Tie As Result Of First Day Of Circuit Golf

Three teams are deadlocked as the result of the opening of Church league golf on Castle Hills course Thursday evening.

Highland U. P., First Presbyterian and St. Marys each scored five points, according to Eddie Long, loop statistician. Joe Dudek was medalist with a 36 and Ray Cartwright won the Perelman ball with a low net 33.

Other scores: First Christian 3½, First U. P. 2½ and Madonna, Trinity and Harbor U. P. one point each.

Other cards turned in were: Stanley Bukowski 37, Bill Nunn 37, F. Palmer 37, T. Baum 39, T. Lach 39 and D. Ashton 39.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Several years ago we were in a group which contained ponderous Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight champion; clever Jimmie Dunn and the keen Jack McQuade. The mammoth ex-champ was giving a dissertation on the Massacre of Toledo, an affray in which Jack Dempsey proved the hatchet man, and out of which mushroomed Dempsey and million-dollar gates. "He didn't have a thing but a good left hook," Willard asserted. The assertion had no sooner left Willard's vocal chords until McQuade dryly interpolated: "And you got it." Some persons would have felt aggrieved. Not Biz Jess. He knew McQuade was right.

Managers of boxers are unlike barristers. The former swing punches. The latter hurl verbal assaults. The late Red Mason engaged in more than one rough-and-tumble affair; likewise Jimmie Dunn. Eddie Kenedy, referee, also went to the floor at times with fighters who did not like decisions and took a punch at him. In some younger days Kennedy was man, in ring or street.

And now one about Dunn, whom we know, well almost as good as he knows himself. He was inveigled into a fight in Akron several years ago. He knocked down the street fighter five times. On the fifth trip the man stayed down. Dunn crawled into his auto and said to Johnny Kilbane: "It's a good thing he didn't get up, or I would have fallen over." He was in. Age is catching up with all of Jim.

We're going to get a few fish stories which concern Alaska, a spot which is going to be much in the headlines within the future. They're going to fall off the pen of the well known student of nature, Owen Fox. Fox and Nick Cassillo have visited Alaska and he agreed today to pen us a few incidents concerning the trip. When he finishes with his writing they'll appear in this column.

Wayne Sines is another fisherman who can fish. He knows every stream in this section of the country, and Wayne has promised to give us some sidelights on what he and his friends have encountered in seeking the vicious muskie, the game trout and cannibal bass and other specie of fish. Here's hoping Wayne's radio technician duties permit him a few hours time in which to tickle the keys of a typewriter for the benefit of readers.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

Sent back to Elizabethton, Tenn., of the Appalachian league, Paul "Lefty" Minner was insuperable in his league debut. The New Wilmington gem pegged an 8-0 shutout against Greenville. He was also the hitting star of the game. Paul was assigned to the A. L. team by Knoxville recently.

Transportation difficulties compelled Westminster college to cancel Saturday's dual track and field meet with Geneva college, booked for Reeves stadium. East Brook high decorates members of its 1941-42 basketball squad during a banquet Tuesday night in East Brook high.

I doubt if there's a more devout ten pin bowler locally than George Shook, of Ray street. The east sider rolled 617 games since the start of the season. His average, a sparkling 190, speaks for itself. By toppling 738 maples in three games, the all-around athlete set up a mark that will stand the test for many years.

Lester "Bus" Reiber, now of the United States Coast Guard, has concluded a brief visit here. The ex-New Castle-Duquesne University cage beauty is stationed in New Jersey . . . Ben Franklin junior high and George Washington meet in a dual track meet on Monday afternoon at Taggart stadium.

Taken to a Buffalo hospital suffering with a fractured jaw, Floyd Giebell, Buffalo pitcher, stayed long enough to receive the prescribed treatment. He left the institution flat leaving behind a note reading: "Give this bed to someone who is really sick." The ex-Detroit pitcher shifted to a downtown hotel.

Monty Stratton, the ex-White Sox twirler who lost a leg in a hunting tragedy in 1938, tried hurling for the Lubbock, Texas, the other night. Monty, who manages the club, was touched for 11 hits and as many runs.

To Dellaverson: The Notre Dame-Carnegie Tech game you asked about was played in South Bend on Saturday, October 22, 1938, the Irish winning 7-0. Johnny Getchell, of Minneapolis, was the official involved in that "wrong down" controversy . . . The three DiMaggios have already clouted an even dozen homers, yesterday's games not included.

Dodgers Quell Pittsburgh, 7-4

Setback Places Bucco 3½ Games Behind Bums; "Bill" Lee Bags Fifth Win

RED SOX LOSE FIFTH STRAIGHT

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 15—Brooklyn was rushing along three and a half games ahead of the National League parade today. The Dodgers turned back the challenge of the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday, 7 to 4, in a slugging match that included a three-run homer by "Ducky" Medwick of the Dodgers and circuit clouts by "Babe" Phelps and Bob Elliott of the Buccaneers.

Medwick slapped his home run in the opening inning after Jimmy Wasdell and Phelps had doubled to send the Pirates one run ahead. The Dodgers scored three tallies in the third to send Alden Wilkie to the showers. Larry French relieved Kirby Higbe in the third inning to score his third straight victory, although Larry had to retire in the sixth because of a leg injury. Gunga Din Casey took over to protect French's triumph.

The New York Giants proved that he who belts last will have the last laugh by whipping the Cincinnati Reds, 12 to 6, with ten runs in the eighth inning. At that point the Giants were trailing, 2 runs to 6. Babe Young, pinch hitter for Harry Feldman, Giant pitcher, started the barrage with a double that for a moment appeared to be an in-the-park home run.

Slay Cincy Pitchers

Manager Mel Ott was high man on the run getting totem pole with a homer and a single. Victims of the Giant bludgeoning were Elmer Riddle, Joe Beggs, Bucky Walters and Clyde Shoun. Feldman was credited with the victory in the whirlwind hitting joust.

Fifteen Giants went to bat during the frame, making ten hits for 17 bases and ten runs.

Bill Lee scored his fifth win in six starts by holding the Phils to seven hits as the Chicago Cubs pounded out a 5 to 3 triumph over Philadelphia. Singles by Stan Hack and Len Merullo, coupled with a walk to Charley Gilbert and an outfield fly give the Cubs a run in the first inning. The Cubs scored three more in the fourth, knocking Frank Melton out of the box.

The St. Louis-Boston game was postponed.

In the American League, the New York Yankees game with Detroit and the Washington-Cleveland tilt were postponed. The Chicago White Sox coupled four errors by the Philadelphia Athletics with nine hits to score a 9 to 4 victory. Bill Dietrich held the A's to two hits in eight innings of the nine, but in the seventh they bunched five hits to account for the four runs. Jack Knott, former Sox pitcher, was kayoed in the fourth, and Herman Besse finishing for the Athletics.

St. Louis handed the Boston Red Sox their fifth straight defeat as Johnny Niggling pitched a six-hit, 6 to 3 victory. Home runs by Roy Cullenbine and Chet Laubs paced the Browns to victory. Errors by Cullenbine and Rick Ferrell aided the Red Sox to unearned runs.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 15 — State revenue from pari-mutuel betting is running far ahead of last year.

Carroll E. Mealey, president of the State Tax Commission, said today state revenue from the 27 day spring meeting at Jamacia was $1,409,510, compared to $1,026,918 for the 25 day Jamacia meeting in 1941 and $760,966 for the 24 day meeting in 1940.

Sharp gains were registered in attendance, handle and total revenue.

Attendance totaled 486,181, for a daily average of 18,007, compared to 386,841 and 15,474 last year. The total handle was $26,192,435, compared to $19,005,823 last year.

Test Air Raid Is Recommended

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—Colonel William Pierce of the Third Corps Area of the United States army was in Ellwood City yesterday with Frank Hill, executive secretary of the Lawrence County Civilian Defense Council. Colonel Pierce conferred with Burgess Clyde Houk, Lowell Monroe, Chet Rodgers, J. Ellis Bell and Air Raid Wardens Harold Rodgers, senior warden of sector 1 and Howard Tribby, senior warden of sector 2.

Colonel Pierce, who is in direct charge of the civilian defense in the western Pennsylvania area and working with Dr. Martz, Pennsylvania defense director, had high praise for the splendid civilian defense organization and had only one recommendation to make which was the installation of several more telephones for division heads to use in the control room.

He also recommended a test air raid with planes using 1 lb bags of flour and all corps called into action just as if it is a real air raid. Colonel Pierce stated he would be back in Lawrence county in the very near future to address a group gathering on civilian defense work.

Ellwood Draftees Are Sent To Erie

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—With a large crowd of relatives and friends on hand to bid them farewell, a large group of selectees of County Draft Board One, with offices in Ellwood, were taken to Erie on Thursday for final physical examinations.

Those that passed the various tests were sent on to the induction center at Ft. Meade, Md., while the others were returned to their homes. This is the first contingent of local draftees to be sent to the Erie center, previous groups having been sent to Pittsburgh. The change was made because of the large numbers being sent to Pittsburgh from the southwestern part of the state as well as from the city proper.

PLAY POSTPONED

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—Because of conflicting activities, the home talent play, "Dummy", to have been presented at the Pleasant Hill grange on May 22 and 23, has been postponed until Thursday and Friday, June 4 and 5.

School Tax Rate Set By Board

Will Remain At Same Rate As Prevailed During Past Year

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—Assembled last night at the high school office for the stated May meeting, the Ellwood City Board of Education levied the 1942-43 school tax rate at 22 mills, which is the current rate. A five dollar per capita tax was also assessed.

Reluctant to raise the millage, the board agreed to put forth an "all out" effort to have both delinquent property and per capita tax collected. Unless sufficient delinquent taxes are paid, it will be necessary for the board to borrow approximately $20,000 before the end of the coming school year to meet the bond payment of $44,000. The bond payments reach a peak in 1943 and 1944, after which the annual amount of payment begins to decrease on a sliding scale.

The budget was increased approximately $10,000 over last year, and this amount was necessary to cover the cost of adjustments made in the salaries of teachers to provide for the increased cost of living.

As adopted, the budget calls for the estimated collection of $142,000 current property tax; $30,000, current per capita tax; $12,000 delinquent property; and $25,000 delinquent per capita. Other large amounts listed as estimated receipts include $35,000 for tuition payment; and $71,000 state appropriation. The total amount of estimated receipts is $328,000.

The greatest amount of the proposed expenditures is $190,000 for teachers' salaries, and $20,000 is also listed for janitors and other employees in the operation of the school plant. For the medical department, $4,348 is listed, and there is also the amount of $2,500 for the library and $1,000 for play grounds. A fixed charge of $6,000 is listed for the retirement fund. The second largest item is the $44,000 for redemption of bonds with the interest coupons being listed as $7,342. The total amount of expenditures is listed at $327,536.

Total tax collections for the month of April amounted to $4,932 with the greatest amounts being for 1941 per capita and property tax.

The calendar for the next school year was adopted. School will begin on Tuesday, September 1, and close on Friday, May 28. All of the usual vacation periods are listed. The enrollment survey shows that there will be 208 new first grade pupils next year.

A request from tax collector, H. E. Wilson, asking for an increase in commission was referred to the finance committee. The report showed that he was paid between $2800 and $3,000 last year.

The resignation of Dr. Loren Conner as school doctor was accepted, and a successor will be elected at the next meeting.

The registration of domestic sugar consumers served a double purpose. From the registrations, the school pupil enumeration will be taken. The enumeration for the Beaver county part of the boro will be taken by C. L. Lash, truant officer, who usually serves as enumerator.

A football equipment storage room will be made in the school basement. New tubes will be secured for the boiler and during the summer treatment will be given the Circle school for the eradication of termites.

Refused was the request of the Cavert Wire company union for the use of the high school auditorium for the presentation of a radio show as a benefit for soldiers.

McKim Funeral On Saturday Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—Funeral services for Robert James McKim, aged 72 years, of Park Gate, who died early Thursday morning at the local hospital, will be held on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, from the residence.

Services will be conducted by Rev. Paul E. Trimpey, pastor of the First Methodist church, with interment to follow in the Clinton cemetery.

Mr. McKim was a lifelong resident of the district and was engaged in the occupation of carpentry and contracting. His wife died six years ago.

He is survived by three sons, Robert J. and Harvey, this city; Warren, of Sharon; two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Shaffer, of Slippery Rock, and Mrs. Hamilton L. Smith, of Westwood, Calif.; two brothers, John, of Ellwood, and Harry, of Newport, and one sister, Mrs. John Goehring, of Marion township.

Sixty Mothers And Daughters Join For Event Sponsored By Braeden Circle

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15—About sixty mothers and daughters of the Wurtemburg United Presbyterian church gathered last evening for the annual mother and daughter tribute sponsored by the Mary Braeden Circle.

The tables were attractively decorated with pretty arrangements of lilacs and spirea with the decorations and programs being in charge of Miss Edith Worcester, Mrs. Hugh Timblin and Mrs. William Hutchinson.

After the invocation by Mrs. Clifford Gibbons, group singing was led by Mrs. William Huber. Mrs. J. E. Caughey presided and presented lovely corsages to Mrs. Maude Turner, the guest speaker; Mrs. Irvin Dolter, president of the Circle; Mrs. Huber, the song leader; and Mrs. R. H. Kirk, a senior sponsor of the Circle.

Miss Frances Hazen offered the toast to mothers and Mrs. Harry Hazen responded to the daughters.

After the signing of "Faith Of Our Mothers," clever readings were given by Dorothy Ter Linden and Nancy Ann Rutter. Enjoyable musical features were solos by Mrs. William Huber; piano solo by Joan Caughey; and vocal solo by Alene Fury, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Harry Fury.

Mrs. Maude Turner, an early member of the church, was the speaker and she gave an informal talk on the evening's theme, and reminisced in an interesting manner about her memories of the church.

The gift to the youngest mother went to Mrs. Ina May Van Gorder; to Mrs. Mary Gibbons, the oldest mother; and Mrs. James Badger and Mrs. Howard Workley, who each had two daughters in attendance.

The evening's program was arranged by Mrs. J. E. Caughney and Mrs. Clifford Gibbons.

Enjoyable Banquet At Baptist Church

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15—With Mrs. J. R. Routledge, wife of the former pastor, as the speaker, a most enjoyable mother and daughter banquet was held last evening at the Providence Baptist church, North Sewickley.

About one hundred mothers and daughters attended with the dinner being served by men of the church. Attractive May Pole decorations surrounded by miniature figurines formed the lovely table appointments.

After group singing with Mrs. Fred Smith as the pianist, Mrs. Lawrence Zeigler presided as toastmistress. The response to Mrs. Routledge's fine talk to the daughters was given by Mrs. Clarence Safreed. The rest of the program included many appropriate musical selections and readings by young women of the church.

Arrangements for the successful event were in charge of Mrs. G. N. Hazen, and she had as aides, Mrs. Ralph Steffler, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hazen, Mrs. Albert Sumner, Mrs. Margaret Karl and Mrs. C. N. Kramer.

Junior Woman's Club Banquet

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—The Ellwood Country club was the scene of a pleasant gathering last evening when members of the Junior Woman's club graciously entertained their mothers at a banquet.

Covers were arranged for 85 at long tables attractively decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. Thomas Moorehead was in charge of the program, which began with the invocation by the president, Mrs. Judd Liebendorfer. The group was welcomed by Mrs. David Jones, and the toast to the mothers was offered by Mrs. Robert Streeter, while Mrs. Joseph Young responded to the daughters.

The June meeting, on Thursday, the 11th, will be held in the form of a picnic at Con-E-Que.

Weekly Meeting Of Rotary Club

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15—Rev. Rolland Luhman, pastor of the First Reformed church, Youngstown, and a district governor, was the guest speaker for the weekly dinner meeting of the Rotary club last night at the Presbyterian church.

His talk centered about the importance of rendering service to fellow associates. H. W. Smith presented the speaker.

Paul Hough was the high school Rotarian of the month. F. E. Moore announced that the club would be asked to aid with the selection of the Golden Jubilee queen.

Sartwell, Fourth street, and Joseph McCandless, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCandless, Line avenue, were presented the American Legion medals as the outstanding eighth grade boy and girl of the Ellwood schools at the junior assembly hour this morning.

The awards are made annually with the winners being chosen by popular vote of the students and faculty. The winners are not announced until the time of presentation.

A varied assembly program followed under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Beatrice.

Memorial Church Banquet Enjoyed

Annual Event Is Attended By 220 Mothers And Daughters Thursday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15 — Two hundred and twenty mothers and daughters were delightfully entertained at a banquet last evening at the Bell Memorial Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Frank Cole presided with the program opening with the singing of "America." Mrs. J. E. Pringle offered the invocation after which the following program was presented: Solos, "God Bless America" and "Playmates" by Evanelle Guy; piano duet by Myra and Lourella Majors; toast to mothers, Miss Twila Nagel; response to daughters, Mrs. Clara Nagel; song, "Faith of Our Mothers"; solo, "When All The World Forgets," Bernice Houk; address, Miss Isabel McKnight, former missionary to the Sudan, in Egypt; duet, "The Sweetest Music," Norma and Ruth Marshall; and motion pictures of local scenery shown by Miss Viola Munnell, New Castle. Mrs. James Marshall was the pianist.

During the program flowers were presented to Mrs. Myrtella Houk, oldest mother; Mrs. William Marshall, youngest mother; Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall, youngest daughter; and Mrs. Elizabeth Houk and Mrs. Anna Marshall, mothers with the most daughters in attendance. A red rose was presented to each of the 14 mothers attending with sons in the service.

The tables were attractively decorated in patriotic colors with the favors being miniature airplanes. The delicious dinner was served by men of the church.

Various Meetings Of Church Groups

Many Sessions Held By Classes And Missionary Societies On Thursday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—Among the various meetings held by church and Sunday school organizations on Thursday were:

Willing Workers

Members of the Willing Workers class of the First Christian church were welcomed last evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Gallaher, North Sewickley.

Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Delilah Campbell, after which bingo was played. The hostess was aided in serving a tempting lunch by her daughters, Ruth and Lois.

Another meeting will be held on Thursday, June 11, at the Campbell home, in Franklin avenue.

Challengers Class

The Challengers class, a newly organized unit of the First Christian church, was welcomed at the home of Miss Ferne Belles, Hazel avenue, with a goodly number in attendance.

Officers were chosen as follows: president, Miss Florence Richards; secretary, Miss Irene Honnifer, and treasurer, Miss Belles. Mrs. Martha Saum is teacher of the class, which will meet regularly the second week of each month.

A social hour followed, with the hostess being aided by her mother, Mrs. Rose Belles, in serving a refreshing lunch.

McDonald Class

There was a good attendance at the May meeting of the Hannah McDonald class, held last night at the First U. P. church.

Lutheran W. M. S.

Nineteen members of the Women's Missionary society assembled last evening at the Trinity Lutheran church for the May meeting.

Mrs. C. D. Ross was the leader, with the topic being "World Christian Fellowship". Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Andrew Zekell reported the district convention held recently at Baden, and a review of the mission magazine was conducted by Mrs. Ralph Shaffer.

On Thursday, June 11, the society will have a life membership dinner at the church. Plans were made to serve a chicken dinner at the Old Peoples Home at Zelienople, in June.

An informal hour followed, with a dainty lunch being served by Mrs. Bessie Guldbransen and Mrs. Fred Gregor.

Daughters of Ruth

With Miss Mary Worrell and Miss Mary Hughes as associate hostesses, members of the Daughters of Ruth class convened last night at the First Baptist church. Nine members and the teacher, Mrs. David VanGorder, attended.

Mrs. Kay Galvin led the devotions, and during the evening Miss Melrose Evans was chosen as secretary to succeed Miss Anne Wiley, who resigned.

Bell Memorial W. M. S.

An all-day meeting was held on Thursday at the Bell Memorial Presbyterian church by the Women's Missionary society, with 11 members attending.

The morning was devoted to quilting, with a tureen dinner being served at noon.

Mrs. James Reed presented the program on "Latin America" and "Spanish Speaking Americans", while the spiritual life talk was given by Mrs. J. E. Pringle.

Special guests were Alta Rodgers and Mrs. Jack Garwig. Thursday, June 11, the society will meet at the church.

Gleaners Class

At the home of Mrs. Hazel Hazen, Ellwood-Portersville road, members of the Gleaners class were welcomed last evening for the May meeting.

Devotions were led by Mrs. N. V. Fowler. Plans were made to have the annual picnic on Thursday, June 11, at Ewing Park grove.

After an informal hour the hostess was aided in serving a tempting lunch by Mrs. Mary Graham and Mrs. Lena Wimer.

Thursday Night Social Affairs

Many Enjoyable Club Meetings Take Place At Various Homes In Community

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—Among the many enjoyable club and social events of Thursday afternoon and evening were:

Pythian Chiefs

Twenty members and one guest, Mrs. Catherine Shultz of the Pythian Past Chiefs club were welcomed at the home of Mrs. Russell Fennick, Wiley Hill.

Awards for 500 went to Mrs. Irene Babel and Mrs. Florence Harvey and for bingo to Mrs. Elizabeth Welsh and Mrs. Cora Snare. Mrs. Iva Garwig, Mrs. Thelma Yoho, Mrs. Julia Buquo and Mrs. Minnie Swick were associate hostesses with Mrs. Fennick and served a delicious lunch.

On Thursday, June 11, the group will meet with Mrs. Ella Klingensmith, Hazel avenue.

Eight-At-Bridge

Mrs. Guy Haddix, Hazel avenue, was a pleasing hostess to members of the Eight-At-Bridge club.

Auction was played at two tables with the high score honors going to Mrs. James Hoy, a special guest and Mrs. Willis Marburger. Mrs. C. L. McKim was also a guest.

Mrs. Frank McKim aided the hostess in serving a refreshing lunch.

The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Leyle Colmery, Foch street.

Castlewood Club

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dougherty opened their home at Castlewood for the May meeting of the Castlewood club with fifteen members and one guest, Miss Anna Knauff, attending.

Awards for 500, the diversion went to Miss Knauff, Mr. and Mrs. William Herge and Henry Seetch and the travel prize to Clarence Kauffman. On June 7, the club will meet for dinner and a regular meeting will be held on June 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Buquo, Wayne avenue.

Mrs. Edna Bright aided in serving a tempting lunch.

Victory Club

Mrs. William Hockenberry, Sr., and Mrs. Robert Lower were guests of the Victory club last night when the members gathered at the home of Mrs. William Hockenberry, Jr., Glen avenue.

Mrs. Archie Powell, Mrs. Edward Rutter and Mrs. Hubert Norton won the card awards. Mrs. Rutter was given a birthday gift.

After the hostess served a refreshing lunch, members departed to meet again on May 27 at the Norton home, Frisco.

T. O. B. Club

Mrs. Burns McKissick, Ninth street, was a pleasant hostess to members of the T. O. B. club last night.

Bridge was the diversion with the nice awards going to Mrs. Joe Smith and Mrs. George Fosnought for high score and the travel prize to Mrs. Thomas Newman. Mrs. Hartzell Rankin was a special guest and aided in serving seasonable refreshments.

On Thursday, May 28, the club will meet with Mrs. Frank Morrow, Franklin avenue.

Kensington Club

Members of the Kensington club were guests at a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. V. Patton, Second street. Mrs. Clyde Hill assisted in serving.

Red Cross sewing was the afternoon diversion.

Eagles Auxiliary Selects Officers

ELLWOOD CITY, May 15.—An election of officers was held at the regular meeting of the Eagles lodge auxiliary last night and resulted:

Past president, Mrs. Eva Challis; president, Mrs. Betty Miller; vice president, Mrs. Frances Welsh; secretary, Miss Louise Covert; treasurer, Mrs. Margie Small; chaplain, Mrs. Esther Bloom; trustees, Mrs. Harriet Hughes, Mrs. Elsie Reeher, Mrs. Margaret Mackey; inside guard, Mrs. Mary Bunney and outside guard, Mrs. Maude Ferree.

Members of the initiatory and drill teams will go to the Toronto, O., lodge on Sunday for exhibition. The local men's lodge will dedicate the new Toronto club house.

The local auxiliary will have an initiation on Sunday afternoon, May 24, at 2:30 o'clock at the local C. I. O. hall to be followed by a banquet and entertainment at the lodge rooms.

Mrs. Rita Hampton won the attendance prize after which lunch was served by Mrs. Ruby Wiseman, Mrs. Martha Cain and Mrs. Elsie Reeher.

The drill team will practice tonight at 7:30 at the hall and a regular meeting will be held on Thursday, May 28.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

Mrs. Ellis Guy remains confined to her home, on the Ellwood-Wampum road, by illness.

William Tillia, this city, has been admitted to the Oestopathic hospital, Grove City, and Mrs. Ruth Mallary and baby, this city, have been discharged.

Mrs. Paul Schink and son, Gary, of Covington, Ky., were to arrive here today for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kettler, Wurtemburg.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL

Little things around New Castle that you can be proud of . . . take for instance the street lights in the downtown area. Did you ever see any cleaner ones in any city this size or larger? Take a look next time you are walking along the streets and see how they sparkle . . Believe it or not but the globes on our street lights are washed on the average of once a month. Nice going . . . and the Pennsylvania Power Men do the washing. Little things like that add to a community but not everyone is conscious of these little services.

If there was only some way that city streets could be kept free of dirt and heavy dust . . Washing them down with strong water pressure might do the trick . . . but that is a job but it would be a great savings to the merchants along the various streets . . . dust blowing in on their merchandise doesn't do it much good . . . and if every merchant would wash down the sidewalk in front of his place of business each bright day . . . this would be a help.

* * *

Suppose a person had enough white sugar on hand to last him for several months . . . at least he hasn't any sugar rationing book . . . but this person needed some brown sugar for cooking . . . What would he do? Do without . . . this is war and we should not complain about little items that we must give up . . . talk to some of the visitors that live in towns on the coast . . . East or West . . . Ask them how they feel about the situation. They will tell you that we people here in the inland cities don't know what its all about . . . ask them.

* * *

The dampness that came last night or early this morning was welcome to the Victory Garden planter . . . some people have really dug in this year and you will find that tomato, cabbage and many other plants are really shooting up . . . if the season holds out there should be a wonderful crop of food . . . and we will need it . . . Vitamins of the right kind will keep you healthy for Victory.

* * *

You can still join the Greater New Castle Association . . . your membership is greatly needed and will be greatly appreciated . . . If you haven't an applicatioin blank stop in at the G. N. C. A. office in The Castleton . . . there is one waiting for you.

Airline Group Weak However As Government Plans To Take Over

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 15.—The stock market rallied today for gains of as much as a point, but the feature was provided by an independently weak airline group.

Word the U. S. Army would take over operation of all domestic airlines caused American Airlines to tumble off 3¾ points to 26, while United Airlines and Transcontinental & Wester each dropped about a point. Aircraft manufacturing shares also softened in sympathy. United Aircraft slipped to a new 1942 bottom of 25¼, off ¾, while Douglas give up a half point to 52½.

Among the stocks to climb a point or more were U. S. Steel, American Telephone, Du Pont, Air Reduction, Sears Roebuck and U. S. Gypsum.

Substantial gains also were shown by Chrysler, Bethlehem Steel, American Smelting, Union Carbide, Texas Co., International Harvester, Montgomery Ward, American Can and Eastman Kodak.

American Shipbuilding slipped a half-point to a new low of 25⅝. N. Y. Central, Standard Oil of N. J. and Loew's also lagged.

Commodities were firm. Bonds were led upward by speculative rail liens.

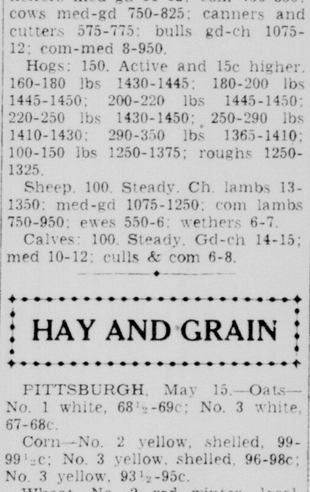
Reported Killed



Jean Assolant

Capt. Jean Assolapt, above, who flew the Atlantic in June, 1929, from Old Orchard, Me., to France, in the famous monoplane, the Canary, is reported to have been killed fighting against the British in Madagascar.

CHICAGO CHILDREN COLLECT SCRAP

Melaine Kozlowski, 10, and her brother, Wilfred, 12, were among the Chicago children who turned out to do their bit in collecting scrap for reclamation and use in war industries. And they seem to have been pretty successful, too.

Review for New Naval Head

Followed by his aides, Rear Admiral Clifford Evans Van Hook, newly appointed commandant of the 15th Naval District, makes his first inspection of the enlisted personnel that will serve under him at Balboa, Panama Canal Zone. It is the first photograph taken of the admiral since he assumed his new post. (Central Press)

College Boy Commando Raid

Soldiers Get Acquainted with Aussie Natives

AUSTRALIAN LEADERS FETE DOUGLAS MacARTHUR

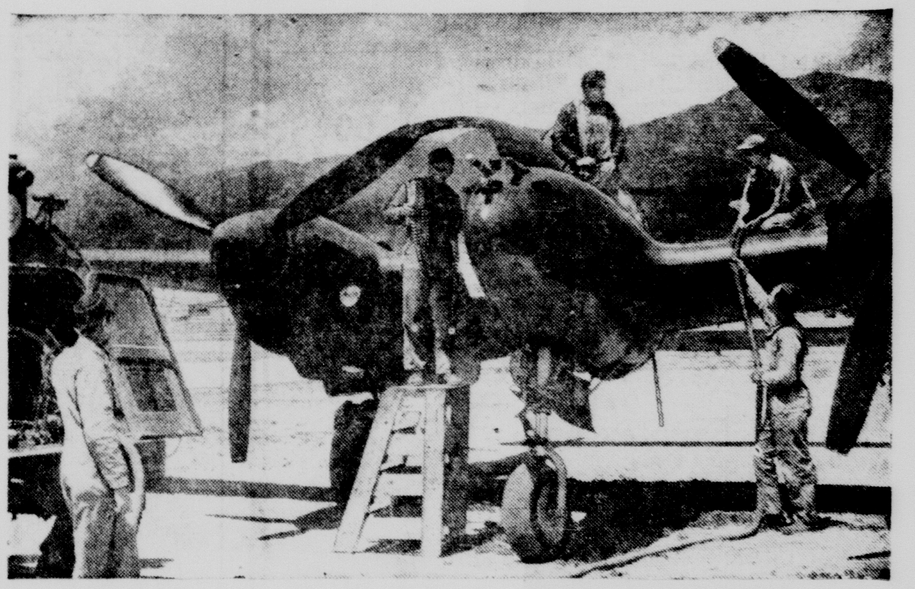
Reloading Pacific Patrol Plane's Guns



This P-38 fighter plane, attached to the Pacific Interceptor Command, which has just returned from a patrol flight, is having its tanks refilled and guns reloaded. The Pacific Interceptor Command inspects and reports on unidentified vessels and is prepared to repel enemy air attacks on the U. S. west coast.
